Brainless Sameness Bob Sornson,2018-08-16 This book offers a careful look at how we came to have our traditional education system and how it met the needs of a different time By looking back at the past we can take on the task of change without casting blame but with understanding We will consider the systems design of the curriculum driven one size fits all educational model why it no longer meets our needs and how to devise a system which can deliver a better future for our children and for ourselves as educators

The New Politics of the Textbook Heather Hickman, Brad J. Porfilio, 2012-10-29 In an era when corporate and political leaders are using their power to control every aspect of the schooling process in North America there has been surprisingly little research on the impact of textbook content on students The contributors of this volume and its partner The New Politics of the Textbook Problematizing the Portrayal of Marginalized Groups in Textbooks guide educators school administrators academics and other concerned citizens to unpack the political social and cultural influences inherent in the textbooks of core content areas such as math science English and social science They urge readers to reconsider the role textbooks play in the creation of students political social and moral development and in perpetuating asymmetrical social and economic relationships where social actors are bestowed unearned privileges and entitlements based upon their race gender sexuality class religion and linguistic background Finally they suggest ways to resist the hegemony of those texts through critical analyses critical questioning and critical pedagogies

Special Educational Needs and Inclusive Practices Fabio Dovigo, 2017-01-28 Today school is becoming a rapidly changing learning environment Thinking about students as a homogeneous population is no longer allowed as diversity in terms of culture language gender family organisation learning styles and so on has emerged as a key challenge for education today The debate on Special Educational Needs largely reflects this challenge as working in school implies careful reconsideration of what we mean by normal and special Current educational intervention is generally based on a deficit and within child model of facing SEN whereas very little attention is given to the role of learning environments The focus is on the child more than on the whole class and on cognition and technical provisions more than on affective sociocultural and community dimensions of learning Conversely regarding students and their needs as hidden voices allows us to adopt a transformative approach which sees diversity as a stimulus for the development of educational practices that might benefit all children and help school to become an inclusive and moving organisation The aim of the book is twofold on the one hand it offers a systematic overview of the inclusive education state of the art in six countries Germany Italy Norway Sweden UK and USA based on the contributions by well known scholars such as Christy Ashby Barbara Brokamp Fabio Dovigo Kari Nes Mara Westling Allodi Tony Booth and Beth Ferri on the other hand the book analyses five cases of good practices of inclusion related to different subjects and school levels
