Your learner has been given a Learner Kit containing a Book for Learners with a Learner Log Book and the Guide for Supervising Drivers.

The Guide for Supervising Drivers includes information about how learners should progress through the four stages of learning to drive and some tips for supervising drivers. It also includes the Learner Log Book. Supervisors should use the log book with a supervising driver to ensure that your learner has completed the required hours of supervised driving. The Log Book and supervising driver should sign it up proof that the learner has driven for at least 120 hours, including 10 hours of night.

Supervising driver and the Learner Log Book

As part of your role as a supervising driver, you need to work with your learner driver to properly fill in the Learner Log Book.

It is important that you and your learner both read the instructions to the Learner Log Book carefully.

As a supervising driver you will need to:

- sign when they begin
- fill in their details in the List of Supervising Drivers
- if necessary, fill in the details in the Description of Learner Log Book (Completed after your learner has completed at least 120 hours practice, including 20 hours at night).

Make sure that your signature in the List of Supervising Drivers is exactly the same as your signature for your own car. It is also important to

If the Learner Log Book is not completed correctly or a completed Description of Learner Log Book (Completed in full provided, your learner will not be able to take their on road drive test. Your learner will have logbook (learning and test) fees, and a retest fee (if your learner's test result is not successful they will take their drive test).

This book is a companion to the Guide for Supervising Drivers. You, as the supervising driver, should use both books throughout the learner period.

Use the information in the Guide for Supervising Drivers to help your driving instructor as your learner progresses through each stage of learning to drive.

Use this book as a source of the information to help you to be a supervising driver.
