

MLA QUICK GUIDE

MLA Style 9th Edition

- ✦ This Quick Guide provides you with an overview of typical reference citations that you will need to utilize when citing your sources using MLA Style 9th Edition.
- ✦ For any additional information about citing sources not listed here, please visit MLA Formatting and Style Guide at the Purdue Online Writing Lab.
- ✦ You can also compare with ZoteroBib, a free, online citation generator.

IN-TEXT CITATIONS

For every source you cite you will also include an in-text citation. This will usually include the author and page number, if there is one, and will go in parentheses at the end of the sentence, just before the period. If the author is already included in the text, then you will leave that out of the in-text citation.

In-text citation	Romantic poetry can be identified by the "spontaneous overflow of powerful feelings" (Wordsworth 263).
In-text citation with two authors	Screenplays can usually be adapted from books but lose some intensity (Granders and Smith 68).
In-text citation with more than two authors	The emotions in the movies of Steven Spielberg are often seen as limited (Granders et al. 238).
When the author is already mentioned in the text	According to Wordsworth, the romantic poetry could be identified by a "spontaneous overflow of powerful feelings" (263). Wordsworth was a keen observer of emotion as a tool in the creative process (263).
When there are two or more sources by the same author include a shortened title	Block example: Some argue that writing is "a process" that "varies with our thinking style" (Murray, Write to Learn 2). Additionally, they argue that the purpose of writing is to "clarify ideas and information from the mind of one person into the mind of another" (Murray, A Writer Teaches Writing 3).
