Due: 8:59pm on Saturday, September 10, 2016

You will receive no credit for items you complete after the assignment is due. Grading PolicyA message from your instructor...

The purpose of the following exercises is to familiarize you with the system you will be using for the rest of your course. These exercises are not intended to teach or test your knowledge of any specific subject material. Therefore, you will not be penalized for using hints or submitting incorrect answers.

Welcome!

Mastering presents homework items assigned by your instructor and works with you to answer them. Homework items typically have an introduction, possibly figures, and one or more parts for you to answer.

Type of help offered

- Mastering tells you immediately whether or not your answers are correct. Usually, you will have multiple chances to arrive at the correct answer. Your instructor will determine how many tries you have available.
- In many items, hints are available to help you if you get stuck. If you don't need the hints to solve the problem, you can still use them for review later on.
- If you submit an incorrect answer, Mastering often responds with specific, helpful feedback.
- Mastering is forgiving of many typos and formatting mistakes. If it can't figure out what you entered, it will let you know and give you another chance.

These exercises were chosen specifically to lead you through the key features of Mastering and are not intended to test your knowledge of any specific subject material. Therefore, on this item you will not be penalized for using hints and submitting incorrect answers. In fact, you should submit incorrect answers and use the hints to see what happens!

Part A

How many squares are in this 2 x 2 grid? Note that the figure link lets you know that a figure goes along with this part. This figure is available to the left.

Enter your answer as a number in the box below and then submit your answer by clicking Submit.

ANSWER:

Number of squares = 5

Correct

What you are reading now is called a "follow-up comment." These comments typically offer more information or provide an interpretation of the answer you just obtained.

Before you move on to a slightly more challenging question, have a quick look at the other buttons available around the answer box.

- Give Up allows you to complete the question if you can't solve it on your own. Your instructor controls whether or not the correct answer is displayed to you.
- My Answers brings up a new window that lists all of the answers you have submitted for this question, along with any helpful feedback you received for incorrect submissions.

Grading

See the help file available by clicking the Help link at the top right corner, if you want to know more about how grading works in general. Here is the most important information you'll need.

You must complete every part to get credit for an item. To complete a part, either answer the main part question correctly or click the Give Up button.
