Leo The African English Edition:

The Early Modern Global South in Print Sandra Young, 2016-03-23 Early modern geographers and compilers of travel narratives drew on a lexicon derived from cartography's seemingly unchanging coordinates to explain human diversity. Sandra Young's inquiry into the partisan knowledge practices of early modernity brings to light the emergence of the early modern global south. Young proposes a new set of terms with which to understand the racialized imaginary inscribed in the scholarly texts that presented the peoples of the south as objects of an inquiring gaze from the north. Through maps, images, and even textual formatting, equivalences were established between new worlds, many of them long known to European explorers, she argues, in terms that made explicit the divide between north and south. This book takes seriously the role of form in shaping meaning and its ideological consequences. Young examines in turn the representational methodologies or artes deployed in mapping the whole world, illustrating, creating charts for navigation, noting down observations, collecting, and cataloguing curiosities, reporting events, formatting materials, and editing and translating old sources. By tracking these methodologies in the lines of beauty and evidence on the page, we can see how early modern producers of knowledge were able to attribute alterity to the southern climes of an increasingly complex world while securing their own place within it.

Encyclopedia of African History 3-Volume Set Kevin Shillington, 2013-07-04 Covering the entire continent from Morocco, Libya, and Egypt in the north to the Cape of Good Hope in the south and the surrounding islands from Cape Verde in the west to Madagascar, Mauritius, and Seychelles in the east, the Encyclopedia of African History is a new A-Z reference resource on the history of the entire African continent. With entries ranging from the earliest evolution of human beings in Africa to the beginning of the twenty-first century, this comprehensive three-volume encyclopedia is the first reference of this scale and scope. Also includes 99 maps.

Hebrewisms of West Africa Joseph John Williams, 1930 An effort to trace through diffusion from the Nile to the Niger the many Hebrewisms, real or apparent, which are to be found among distinctly Negro tribes in West Africa in general but particularly among the Ashanti.

Globalism in the Middle Ages and the Early Modern Age Albrecht Classen,2023-09-05 Although it is fashionable among modernists to claim that globalism emerged only since ca 1800 the opposite can well be documented through careful comparative and transdisciplinary studies as this volume demonstrates offering a wide range of innovative perspectives on often neglected literary philosophical historical or medical documents Texts images ideas knowledge and objects migrated throughout the world already in the pre modern world even if the quantitative level compared to the modern world might have been different In fact by means of translations and trade for instance global connections were established and maintained over the centuries Archetypal motifs developed in many literatures indicate how much pre modern people actually shared But we also discover hard core facts of global economic exchange import of exotic medicine and on another level intensive intellectual debates on religious issues Literary evidence serves best to expose the extent to which contacts with people in foreign countries were imaginable often desirable and at times feared of course The pre modern world was much more on the move and reached out to distant lands out of curiosity economic interests and political and military concerns Diplomats crisscrossed the continents and artists poets and craftsmen traveled widely We can identify for instance both the Vikings and the Arabs as global players long before the rise of modern globalism so this volume promises to rewrite many of our traditional notions about pre modern worldviews economic conditions and the literary sharing on a global level as perhaps best expressed by the genre of the fable The Encyclopaedia Britannica: Ita to Lor ,1911 The Encyclopaedia Britannica ,1911 Collections of the Massachusetts Historical Society Massachusetts Historical Society,1871 For the statement above quoted also for full bibliographical information regarding this publication and for the contents of the volumes 1st ser v 1 7th series v 5 cf Griffin Bibl of Amer hist society 2d edition 1907 p 346 360
