

Advocacy White Paper Topic Selection

Multicultural education advocates for systemic change within schools to keep pace with societal evolution, ensuring education remains relevant and prepares students for a globalized world. It encompasses changing pedagogical approaches, broadening the curriculum, and advocating for educational policies that consider the needs of all students, aiming for a more inclusive, equitable educational environment. Explore the complex landscape of education, focusing on identifying challenges or opportunities for advocacy within educational environments. Select a white paper topic that demonstrates your understanding of the intricacies affecting learning environments but also contributes meaningfully to the ongoing discourse on educational reform.

Part 1: Select a Topic

1. Highlight a topic for your white paper from the list below. If you would like to write about a topic that is not on the list, message your instructor with your request for approval.
