Act I Study Guide Questions

Answer the following questions using complete sentences.

1. Give a description for each of the following characters and describe how they react to Helen:

a. Kate Keller – Helen’s mother; described as a young, gentlewoman; later described as careworn. She still believes there is hope to reach Helen. She is patient and the family peacekeeper.

b. Captain Arthur Keller – Helen’s father; described as a hearty gentleman in his mid-forties. He is a newspaper editor. He is impatient and imperious. He does not believe there is hope for Helen; he no longer believes in miracles.

c. Annie Sullivan – Helen’s teacher; she is a twenty years old girl from the North (a Yankee.) She came from The Perkins Institute. She was formerly blind. She expects Helen to act like a normal child.

d. James Keller – Helen’s half brother. He is probably in his late teens. He is indolent and sarcastic. He does not believe there is any hope for Helen; he thinks she is half mentally defective.

2. What causes Helen’s blindness and deafness?

She had a high fever which lead to her blindness and deafness; the doctor said she had acute congestion of the stomach and brain.

3. How does Mrs. Keller realize what has happened to Helen?

She notices that Helen’s eyes do not move when she passes her hand over them and there is no response when Kate yells in her ears

4. Describe Helen, both her positive and negative qualities.

Positive: energetic, inquisitive, curious

Negative: tantrums, easily frustrated

5. What causes Helen to become so frustrated in the scene with Percy and Martha? What does Helen want to be able to do? (8-9)

She wants to speak and communicate but cannot. Percy bites her fingers as she tries to mimic his motions and feel his lips moving.

40 Questions About the Historical Jesus C. Marvin Pate,2015-04-27 Answers to critical questions regarding the study of the Jesus of history and the Christ of faith The conclusions of the quest for the historical Jesus which casts the majority of Christ s life as a myth are a stark contrast to the orthodox view of Christ as presented in the Bible Pate demonstrates that a critical analysis of the gospel text along with historical and cultural methods of investigation actually point toward an orthodox view of Christ This work argues that the canonical Gospels are the most trustworthy information we have about the gospel writers as well as the life and ministry of Jesus including his death visit to hades resurrection and ascension Readers will be encouraged by the reliability of the Gospel writers the reality of Jesus humanity and deity and the inferiority of the apocryphal gospels

Drama, Disability and Education Andy Kempe,2013 What can society learn about disability through the way it is portrayed in TV films and plays This insightful and accessible text explores and analyses the way disability is portrayed in drama and how that portrayal may be interpreted by young audiences Investigating how disabilities have been represented on stage in the past this book discusses what may be inferred from plays which feature disabled characters through a variety of critical approaches In addition to the theoretical analysis of disability in dramatic literature the book includes two previously unpublished playscripts both of which have been performed by secondary school aged students and which focus on issues of disability and its effects on others The contextual notes and discussion which accompany these plays and projects provide insights into how drama can contribute to disability education and how it can give a voice to students who have special educational needs themselves Other features of this wide ranging text include an annotated chronology that traces the history of plays that have featured disabled characters an analysis of how disability is used as a dramatic metaphor consideration of the ethics of dramatising a disabled character critical accounts of units of work in mainstream school seeking to raise disability awareness through engagement with practical drama and dramatic texts a description and evaluation of a drama project in a special school In tackling questions and issues that have not hitherto been well covered Drama Disability and Education will be of enormous interest to drama students teachers researchers and pedagogues who work with disabled people or are concerned with raising awareness and understanding of disability
