Act 1, scene 1

1. What is the witches' challenge to humanity by beginning the play with their chant?

Macbeth is saying that there are dark, dangerous, and to some extent supernatural forces working in the world, questioning themselves that they plan to bring order to it.

2. What does the opening to Macbeth tell us about the time that is being set in?

It is clear that Macbeth is suggesting that the time has passed beyond what is possible and might be characterized as a time of supernatural power, perhaps through the time.

3. What does the first scene reference and set the stage for?

Act 1, scene 2

1. What is the purpose of this early scene?

It sets the stage for the rest of the play, showing that the war between Scotland and Norway and the death of King Duncan are the main events.

2. What does the death of King Duncan's army and the death of King Duncan tell us about the time that is being set in?

It is clear that Macbeth is suggesting that the time has passed beyond what is possible and might be characterized as a time of supernatural power, perhaps through the time.

3. What is the significance of King Duncan's death?

It is the main event of the play.

4. What does Macbeth and Banquo's fight tell us about the time that is being set in?

It is clear that Macbeth is suggesting that the time has passed beyond what is possible and might be characterized as a time of supernatural power, perhaps through the time.

5. What does King Duncan's death tell us about the time that is being set in?

It is clear that Macbeth is suggesting that the time has passed beyond what is possible and might be characterized as a time of supernatural power, perhaps through the time.
