GENERAL RULES

- Double-space your paper, including the reference list.
- Format reference list entries with a hanging indent (.5 inch or 1.27 cm). To do this in Microsoft Word: Select references, right click, select paragraph, and then change the Special drop down menu to hanging. See example on page 6 of this guide.
- Arrange reference list entries in alphabetical order by the surname of the first author or by title if there is no author.
- Use only the initial(s) of the author's first name and middle name (if given).
- If the reference list includes two or more entries by the same author(s), list them in chronological order (oldest first).
- Capitalize only the first letter of the first word in the title and subtitle of an article or book. Capitalize all proper nouns. For journal titles, capitalize all significant words.
- Italicize journal titles and volume numbers. Do not italicize issue numbers. Italicize book titles.
- References cited in text must appear in the reference list and vice versa. The only exceptions to this rule are personal communications and secondary sources, which are cited in text only and are not included in the reference list. See examples 7 & 10 on page 7 of this guide.
- Any republished tables, graphs, or figures (including photographs and illustrations) must be clearly marked as reprinted or adapted, and the original source must be provided both in the text and in a full reference list entry. Please see the APA Citation Guide for Business Sources for more information.
- If you are unable to identify a specific example, follow an example that is most like your source.
- A DOI (Digital Object Identifier) is a unique string of numbers and letters applied to content. DOIs are typically on the first page of a journal article or are included in a database's article information. If there is no DOI, use the journal's home page instead.
