

Dear parents and/or guardians:

Welcome to a new school year! My name is _____ and I will be your child's teacher for this school year! I feel honored to have the opportunity to be here and work with your child at this school.

I have planned several interesting activities and units that I will implement into the daily curriculum in order to facilitate your child's exploration and learning. The curriculum I will follow is a combination of state mandated requirements and standards as well as practical and fun lessons for students at this level.

So much happens in First Grade! It is very important to keep in mind that we all build on small successes. Each child will progress at its own rate, acquiring skills as he/she is developmentally ready. Maintaining each child's self-esteem and building a secure foundation for future growth will always remain a priority in our first grade. My first commitment is to help your child to succeed in their learning and to develop its young mind to become a productive young adult. I am looking forward to working with you to accomplish these important goals.

Please take time to review all information with your child, including handouts, class policies, class assignments, and upcoming test schedules. These will provide you with information about what your child is learning. Also, review your child's communication notebook daily. It will contain assignments and notes from me when needed. Please write any comments or doubts you have in this notebook as well.

At the end of each semester, I will give you a report card. It will contain grades based on your child's achievements. The grades will be based on projects, presentations, participation in class, and attendance.

At school, I will constantly emphasize three important values: be responsible, be respectful, and be cooperative. Students who display difficulties with their behavior will be asked to fill out a problem-solving form to find a solution to the problem. However, severe misbehavior will need to be handled in the presence of parents or guardians.

Once again, welcome to 1st grade class. I am looking forward to getting to know each of you as well as having a productive school year. Please do not hesitate to contact me anytime to discuss any concern or question. Let's work together to make this year the best year ever!

Sincerely,

Miss _____
