The black power movement was a philosophy that advocated for black people to seek freedom from white authority, uphold racial pride and seek self-determination.

The Black Power Movement (BPM) emerged out of black discontent with the achievements of the CRM. This movement was an ideological philosophy that advocated for economic and political power of black people, self-defense against racial oppression and the promotion of black interests. Though the main idea of bpm was for black people to seek freedom from white authority.

Malcom X, intellectual father of BP was an Islamic human rights activist who preached black sufficiency and armed self-defense against racial oppression and racism.
