TITLE:

Eraser and Echo of Clock:

What do you think the poem is going to be about?

PARAPHRASE: (put it in your own words)

POEM	Paraphrase	POEM	PARAPHRASE
My eraser is pink And can-shaped, It sitsle across My math book. Which is a mess of numbers, All wrong, like When I whistled The back of my watch And the workings Fell out. The teacher frowned When she saw The watch, So poor heart Torn out. Now I'm working On my math. And I think, I think, I think I know, I look Up on the school clock With its hammerlike tick. Open its back, And perhaps The springs and gears Would jump And time stop. This one could stop, And my friends Cheese, pencils In their hands, Erasers, too.		All would leave, Including my teacher, And I could blow On the tick marks Of my eraser. I fell out To the playground, My right fingers And two thumbs Whipped around A baseball bat. The janitor is Down to his knees, The gardener To his knees of knee and spriggle, And the principal To his under-table. I sit down After hours, And they stand, Face down And muscle gone, Their eyes maybe moving Slower following The light of each new hour. What a dream, Fading And look around The classroom Of erasers and pencils, The clock ticking My answer to the tick.
