The Historiography of Persian Architecture Mohammad Gharipour, 2015-08-27 Historiography is the study of the methodology of writing history the development of the discipline of history and the changing interpretations of historical events in the works of individual historians Exploring the historiography of Persian art and architecture requires a closer look at a diverse range of sources including chronicles historical accounts travelogues and material evidence coming from archaeological excavations The Historiography of Persian Architecture highlights the political cultural and intellectual contexts that lie behind the written history of Persian architecture in the twentieth century presenting a series of investigations on issues related to historiography This book addresses the challenges complexities and contradictions regarding historical and geographical diversity of Persian architecture including issues lacking in the 20th century historiography of Iran and neighbouring countries This book not only illustrates different trends in Persian architecture but also clarifies changing notions of research in this field Aiming to introduce new tools of analysis the book offers fresh insights into the discipline supported by historical documents archaeological data treatises and visual materials It brings together well established and emerging scholars from a broad range of academic spheres in order to question and challenge pre-existing historiographical frameworks particularly through specific case studies Overall it provides a valuable contribution to the study of Persian architecture simultaneously revisiting past literature and advancing new approaches This book would be of interest to students and scholars of Middle East and Iranian Studies as well as Architectural History including Islamic architecture and historiography In-Between: Architectural Drawing and Imaginative Knowledge in Islamic and Western Traditions Dr Hooman Koliji, 2015-07-28 This book argues that design drawings should be recognised as intermediaries mediating between the world of ideas and the world of things spanning the intangible and tangible The book argues that this in between quality to architectural drawing is essential and that it is critical to perceive drawings as subtle bodies that hold physical attributes e g form proportion colour highly evocative yet with no matter Focusing on Islamic geometric architectural drawings both historical and contemporary it draws on key philosophical and conceptual notions of imagination from the Islamic tradition as these relate to the creative act It also adds to debates on philosophies of the imagination linking both Western and Islamic traditions
