

An aerial photograph of a dense forest, showing a network of paths and clearings. The trees are mostly green, with some brown and orange patches, suggesting a mix of species or perhaps autumn. The lighting is soft, creating a textured, layered appearance to the canopy.

Child Protection in the Church Michael A. Guerzoni, 2021-07-05 Child Protection in the Church investigates whether amidst publicised promises of change from church institutions and the introduction of safe church policies and procedures reform is actually occurring within Christian churches towards safeguarding using a case study of the Anglican Diocese of Tasmania Australia Through the use of interviews and document analysis the book provides an insight into the attitudes and practices of ordinary clergypersons towards child sexual abuse and safeguarding to understand how safe ministry is understood and executed in everyday life in the Church and to what extent it aligns with policy requirements and criminological best practice It adopts organisational culture theory the perspective used to explain how clerical culture enabled and concealed child sexual abuse in the Church to the present in order to understand how clerical attitudes cognition and practice conduct today is being shaped by some of the same negative cultures Underlying these cultures is misunderstandings of abuse causation which are shown here to negatively shape clerical practice and at times compromise policy and procedural requirements Providing an insight into the lived reality of safeguarding within churches and highlighting the ongoing complexities of safe ministry the book is a useful companion to students academics and practitioners of child protection and organisational studies alongside clergy church leaders and those training for the ministry

Violent student protests at Higher Education Institutions in South Africa Nomzamo Dube, Olusegun Morakinyo, 2026-01-19 This book offers a multidisciplinary examination of violent student protests in South African universities tracing their roots to the nation's longstanding protest traditions shaped by apartheid resistance While situated within the field of higher education its chapters draw on perspectives from politics history communication and youth mobilisation Central to the volume is the complex balance between students right to protest and the risks posed by violence intimidation and gangsterism Collectively the contributions advocate for reimagining student activism through democratic and constructive forms of engagement that strengthen rather than destabilise the academic project

Swift, Robert Ganton Clarke, 1994 Issues housing health environment unemployment energy conservation technology media aging natives women internationalism Education and Society in Comparative Context Eija Kimonen, 2015-12-17 What was the interrelationship between education and society during the twentieth century in the United States and India What is the essence of the historical development of educational policies and social systems in these two countries What philosophical views and developmental courses underlie their outdoor oriented education What are their aims of outdoor oriented education What procedures are connected with their outdoor oriented education These questions are examined in this unique volume This book is divided into three parts The first part creates a context for the comparison of the issues concerning education and society The central point of departure used here regards education as being closely related to the totality of culture and human activity The dialectic process between education and society is realized differently in accordance with the value objectives that provide the background for different societies This comparative educational study uses a historico hermeneutical approach The second part analyzes the social systems and educational policies of the United States and India following their developmental trends and patterns The nature of the relationship between education and society for each country is further brought into focus when it is interpreted from the perspective of the philosophical views pedagogical aims and procedures of twentieth century outdoor oriented education The case studies provide an interesting insight into how changes in educational policy have been reflected in the every day pedagogical procedures used in schools in the United States and India The third part is an analysis and comparison of the phenomena previously presented that are related to education and society through the lenses suggested by sociological theories It compares the dimensions of the interrelationship between education and society from the standpoint of outdoor oriented education in the two countries during the twentieth century This thought provoking volume is intended for anybody interested in the interplay between education and society in all its complexity It offers a fascinating journey into the past and present of the issues that have defined the development of education and society in the United States and India Book Matters Alan Sica, 2017-07-05 Scholars have been puzzling over the future of the book since Marshall McLuhan's famous maxim the medium is the message in the early 1950s McLuhan famously argued that electronic media was creating a global village in which books would become obsolete Such views were ahead of their time but today they are all too relevant as declining sales even among classic texts have become a serious matter in academic publishing Does anyone still read long and complex works either from the past or the present Is the role of a professional reader and reviewer of manuscripts still relevant Book Matters closely analyses these questions and others Alan Sica surmises that the concentration span required for studying and discussing complex texts has slipped away as undergraduate classes are becoming inundated by shorter easier to teach scholarly and literary works He considers such matters in part from the point of view of a former editor of scholarly journals In an engaging style he gives readers succinct analyses of books and ideas that once held the interest of millions of discerning readers such as Simone de Beauvoir's Second Sex and the works of David Graham Phillips and C Wright Mills among others. Book Matters is not a nostalgic cry for lost ideas but instead a stark reminder of just how aware and analytically illuminating certain scholars were prior to the Internet and how endangered the book is in this era of pixelated communication.

Forthcoming Books Rose Arny, 2001     Health Care Ethics Eileen E. Morrison, Rachel Ellison, 2025-01-21 Health Care Ethics: Critical Issues for the 21st Century is built around the four central themes of healthcare ethics: theoretical foundations, issues for individuals, issues for organizations, and issues for society. The text brings together the insights of a diverse panel of leading experts from the fields of bioethics, long-term care, and health administration among others, and a comprehensive update of the ethics of pandemics.     Sociology Katherina L. P. Lundy, Barbara Warme, 1990     The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 2003     Sociology Jean Stockard, 2000 SOCIOLOGY: DISCOVERING SOCIETY 2nd provides comprehensive coverage of sociology in an affordable paperback format. With research studies in every chapter and boxes that portray sociologists at work, it will especially appeal to sociology professors who value a quantitative research methodology-oriented approach. Instead of presenting every possible theory for each issue, Stockard's streamlined approach pulls in theories only when they appropriately relate to the issue at hand. This integrated approach produces a text that reads more smoothly than the overly encyclopedic, heavily interrupted narratives of other texts.     Paulinism: Exposition of Paul's doctrine Otto Pfliegerer, 1877     The Philosophy of Religion on the Basis of Its History: The historical development of the religious consciousness ; The contents of the religious consciousness (opening chapters) Otto Pfliegerer, 1888     Paul, the Apostle of Jesus Christ Ferdinand Christian Baur, 1875     The History of Jesus of Nazara Theodor Keim, 1883     Lectures on the Origin and Growth of Religion as Illustrated by the Religion of the Ancient Babylonians Archibald Henry Sayce, 1887     Catalogue of the London Library, St. James Square, London London Library, Charles Theodore Hagberg Wright, Christopher James Purnell, 1914     An Enquiry Into the Evidential Value of Prophecy Ernest Arthur Edghill, 1906     Introduction to Philosophy Oswald Külpe, 1901     *Introduction to philosophy, tr. by W.B.
