Slenderman Kathleen Hale, 2022-08-16 The first full account of the Slenderman stabbing a true crime narrative of mental illness the American judicial system the trials of adolescence and the power of the internet On May 31 2014 in the Milwaukee suburb of Waukesha Wisconsin two twelve year old girls attempted to stab their classmate to death Morgan Geysler and Anissa Weier's violence was extreme but what seemed even more frightening was that they committed their crime under the influence of a figure born by the internet the so called Slenderman Yet the even more urgent aspect of the story that the children involved suffered from undiagnosed mental illnesses often went overlooked in coverage of the case Slenderman Online Obsession Mental Illness and the Violent Crime of Two Midwestern Girls tells that full story for the first time in deeply researched detail using court transcripts police reports individual reporting and exclusive interviews Morgan and Anissa were bound together by their shared love of geeky television shows and animals and their discovery of the user uploaded scary stories on the Creepypasta website could have been nothing more than a brief phase But Morgan was suffering from early onset childhood schizophrenia She believed that she had seen Slenderman long before discovering him online and the only way to stop him from killing her family was to bring him a sacrifice Morgan's best friend Payton Bella Leutner whom Morgan and Anissa planned to stab to death on the night of Morgan's twelfth birthday party Bella survived the attack but was deeply traumatized while Morgan and Anissa were immediately sent to jail and the severity of their crime meant that they would be prosecuted as adults There as Morgan continued to suffer from worsening mental illness after being denied antipsychotics her life became more and more surreal Slenderman is both a page turning true crime story and a search for justice
