Life Orientation September Question Paper 2012:

Older People: Improving Health and Social Care Bea L. Dijkman, Irma Mikkonen, Petrie F. Roodbol, 2018-11-11 This contributed volume is based on the European Core Competences Framework for health and social care professionals working with older people ECCF developed and verified in a unique international cooperation between 26 universities and universities of applied sciences in 25 European countries part of the European Later Life Active Network ELLAN In addition to the framework the book outlines the necessary qualifications and describes the roles of professionals working with older people in health and social services It explores healthy ageing for older people from different perspectives and describes the seven roles of health and social care professionals Expert Communicator Collaborator Organizer Health and Welfare Advocate Scholar and Professional before going on to define 18 related competences and elaborating them in performance indicators Beyond the ECCF the book explains the widely used CanMED role model and puts forward theories to support a client centered and integrated approach on health and social care in order to change attitudes toward older clients and offer better care and support It also provides health and social care professionals for example nurses allied health professionals and social workers with new contextual information and cultural awareness It gives a voice to students by addressing selected perspectives for professional development The book includes questions for reflective learning helping to make the book a vital practical instrument for use in the educational context throughout Europe Europe s ageing populations represent a major challenge for both public health and social care systems 18% of the population is 65 years old and over and this proportion will increase in the coming years As a result more and more health and social care professionals will work with older people in different settings at home in the community in hospitals or in long term care settings Older people and especially the frail face a host of interrelated issues e g cognitive restrictions functional restrictions psychosocial problems multimorbidity polypharmacy and social isolation These problems call for an integrated approach to health and social care which this book supplies It is intended for health and social care professionals students and educators for a better understanding of Europe s ageing society and of the impact on care and services Furthermore the ECCF offers educational institutes a unique resource for curriculum development education training and assessment Education for Purposeful Teaching Around the World Kirsi Tirri, Seana Moran, Jennifer Menon Mariano, 2019-10-23 Purpose can be seen as a key promoter in both professional growth and resilience for teachers As a result in many countries around the world the purpose of education and the role of schools as supports for purpose development are growing as important topics of scientific research and educational debate A conceptual shift is occurring in several countries the purpose of education is becoming an education for purpose In this book researchers around the world examine what a shift toward an education for purpose looks like across several cultures Teachers around the world should be explicitly educated for competencies that make purposeful and purpose oriented teaching possible The goal of teacher education is to educate teachers not only to teach knowledge content but also to reflect on the purposefulness of their teaching Why do their lessons and activities matter What immediate impact and long term effects do their teaching efforts have on the pupils as well as the communities in which pupils interact This chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Education for Teaching

The Ecosocial Transition of Societies Aila-Leena Matthies,Kati Närhi,2016-10-04 This groundbreaking book both explains and expands the growing debate on ecological environmental social work at the global level In order to achieve this the book strengthens the environmental paradigm in social work and social policy by undertaking further research on theoretical and conceptual clarification as well as distinct reflections on its practical directions Divided into five parts concepts the impact of environmental crises sustainable communities and lifestyles food politics and the profession in transition this work s main objective is to place ecological social work as a part of the more comprehensive and interdisciplinary eco social transition of societies towards sustainability balancing economic and social development with the limited resources of the natural environment By focussing on these five core concepts it shows how social work and social policy contribute to this transition through having a research based approach and orientation on solutions rather than problem analysis The book will be of interest to scholars from a broad range of disciplines including those in social work and social policy sustainability economics agriculture and environmental studies

The Paradox of Parliament Jonathan Malloy,2023-02-27 The Paradox of Parliament provides a comprehensive analysis of all aspects of Parliament in order to explain the paradoxical expectations placed on the institution The book argues that Parliament labours under two different logics of its purpose and primary role one based on governance and decision making and one based on representation and voice This produces a paradox that is common to many legislatures but Canada and Canadians particularly struggle to recognize and reconcile the competing logics In The Paradox of Parliament Jonathan Malloy discusses the major aspects of Parliament through the lens of these two competing logics to explain the ongoing dissatisfaction with Parliament and perennial calls for parliamentary reform It focuses on overarching analytical themes rather than exhaustive description It centres people over procedure and theory with strong emphasis given to dimensions of gender race and additional forms of diversity Arguing for a holistic and realistic understanding of Parliament that recognizes and accepts that Parliament evolves and adapts The Paradox of Parliament puts forward an important and novel interpretation of the many facets of Parliament in Canada

China and the EU in Context Kerry Brown,2014-03-30 Brings together the research of world class commentators on China from across Europe to explore the policy aspects of the China EU relationship Aimed at practitioners this book shows how to relate to China practically and understand its complexities for business purposes including investment social unrest and China s five year program

Human rights in diverse education contexts J.P. Rossouw,Elda de Waal,Johan Beckmann,Johan Botha,Franciska Bothma,André du Plessis,Elize Küng,Nicholus Mollo,Ewelina Niemczyk,Louise Postma,Erika Serfontein,Marius Smit,Charl C. Wolhuter,2019-12-12 The focus of this publication is on answering the central research question How can Human Rights be advanced with regard to different kinds of diversities and in different educational settings The publication pays special attention to the advancement of human rights in a variety of education related contexts in keeping with human rights as a declared national priority for both society at large and the education system One strategic priority of the Faculty of Education is research based on market requirements and needs This book strives towards meeting this expectation by directly aiming at building human rights and social justice in the South African society public schools and higher education institutions Adjudication in the education context of the constitutional values of dignity equality and freedom focusses regularly on learners The book highlights the value of education for full fledged citizenship by delineating what schooling should entail to inspire learners towards both claiming equal freedoms and rights and taking accountability for the responsibilities attached to citizenship
