Google Street View Manual:

The Routledge Handbook of Geospatial Technologies and Society Alexander J. Kent, Doug Specht, 2023-08-17 The Routledge Handbook of Geospatial Technologies and Society provides a relevant and comprehensive reference point for research and practice in this dynamic field. It offers detailed explanations of geospatial technologies and provides critical reviews and appraisals of their application in society within international and multi-disciplinary contexts as agents of change. The ability of geospatial data to transform knowledge in contemporary and future societies forms an important theme running throughout the entire volume. Contributors reflect on the changing role of geospatial technologies in society and highlight new applications that represent transformative directions in society and point towards new horizons. Furthermore, they encourage dialogue across disciplines to bring new theoretical perspectives on geospatial technologies from neurology to heritage studies. The international contributions from leading scholars and influential practitioners that constitute the Handbook provide a wealth of critical examples of these technologies as agents of change in societies around the globe. The book will appeal to advanced undergraduates and practitioners interested or engaged in their application worldwide.

Remote Sensing Handbook, Volume II Prasad S. Thenkabail, 2024-11-29 Volume II of the Six Volume Remote Sensing Handbook Second Edition is focused on digital image processing including image classification methods in land cover and land use. It discusses object based segmentation and pixel based image processing algorithms, change detection techniques and image classification for a wide array of applications including land use, land cover, croplands, urban studies, processing hyperspectral remote sensing data, thermal imagery, light detection and ranging LiDAR, geoprocessing workflows, frontiers of GIScience and future pathways. This thoroughly revised and updated volume draws on the expertise of a diverse array of leading international authorities in remote sensing and provides an essential resource for researchers at all levels interested in using remote sensing. It integrates discussions of remote sensing principles, data methods, development, applications and scientific and social context. Features: Provides the most up to date comprehensive coverage of digital image processing. Highlights object based image analysis (OBIA) and pixel based classification methods and techniques of digital image processing. Demonstrates practical examples of image processing for a myriad of applications such as land use, land cover, croplands and urban. Establishes image processing using different types of remote sensing data that includes multispectral, radar, LiDAR, thermal and hyperspectral. Highlights change detection, geoprocessing and GIScience. This volume is an excellent resource for the entire remote sensing and GIS community. Academics, researchers, undergraduate and graduate students as well as practitioners, decision makers and policymakers will benefit from the expertise of the professionals featured in this book and their extensive knowledge of new and emerging trends.

Location Awareness in the Age of Google Maps Rebecca Noone, 2024-07-12 Location Awareness in the Age of Google Maps explores the mundane act of navigating cities in the age of digital mapping infrastructures. Noone follows the frictions, routing through Google Maps categorising and classifying of spatial information Complicating the assumption that digital maps distort a sense of direction Noone argues that Google Maps location awareness does more than just organise and orient a representation of space it also organises and orients imaginaries of publicness selfsufficiency legibility and error At the same time Location Awareness in the Age of Google Maps helps to animate the ordinary ways people are challenging and refusing Google Maps vision of the world Drawing on an arts based field study spanning the streets of London New York London Toronto and Amsterdam Noone s encounters of asking for directions open up lines of inquiry and spatial scores that cut through Google s universal mapping project Location Awareness in the Age of Google Maps will be essential reading for information studies and media studies scholars and students with an interest in embodied information practices critical information studies and critical data studies The book will also appeal to an urban studies audience engaged in work on the digital city and the datafication of urban environments
