Venice Project Carlo Pirovano,1985 The History of Town Planning in a Dependent State Louis C. Wassenhoven,2025-09-01 This book is based on research carried out by the author in Greece addressed initially to Greek readers mainly researchers of the Department of Urban and Regional Planning National Technical University of Athens where he served for a long time as professor However a great deal of the research has a definite international interest and its results form the backbone of his new undertaking in English Although some of the observations included in the initial project are reproduced here the gist of the author s arguments dwells on issues which are not of a narrow national interest This book interests students and historians of town planning whose area of reference is not only Europe but also the countries which have been through a state of dependence and external domination and had to import foreign planning ideas and concepts The author tries to embrace a broad spectrum of urban planning ideas developments and influences which dominated the 19th century planning practice of a country which had just achieved political independence but was still practically a protectorate of the great powers of the time often referred to as the Protecting Powers Great Britain France and Russia Every aspect of domestic policies and developments was directly dictated or indirectly influenced by the choices policies laws and actions of these external forces It was also influenced by the advice and expert opinions of foreigners or even of Greeks whose mode of conceptualizing the problems of the dependent country had been deeply affected by their life or education in foreign lands Looking at this state of affairs more than two centuries after the 1821 Greek War of Independence demands full awareness of these conditions

Of Spaces and Ideas Petr Chalupský,Tereza Topolovská,2024-11-01 This monograph provides a deeper insight into the work of two contemporary British novelists Jim Crace and Simon Mawer with a particular emphasis on their spatial sensibility as one of the defining elements of their poetics Drawing on a range of literary theoretical approaches to space the study analyses selected novels by the two writers to demonstrate the ways in which they render space and place and above all the ways in which their spatial representations allow them to express the key ideas behind their stories namely those of identity history and the relationship between an individual and the environment in which they live

The Must-Read : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This poignant tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover skillfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can prevail. Uncover the Best : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This captivating historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids captivating storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Discover the Magic : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This mesmerizing coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens spins a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These top-selling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of compelling stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a brilliant and suspenseful novel that will keep you wondering until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
