Renting Versus Owning and the Role of Income Risk Rainer Schulz, Martin Wersing, Axel Werwatz, 2009 In a world with complete markets and no transactions cost the decision whether to rent or buy a home is separate from a household's professional income risk If markets are incomplete and have frictions however profession specific income risk regional house price risk and mobility needs will interact and should affect the tenure mode choice Using panel data from West Germany we establish homogeneous profession groups and estimate their regional net income risk and regional mobility We then examine the impact of the risk and mobility variables on the tenure mode decision at the aggregate and the individual household level We find that the diversification potential of renting affects the tenure mode choice as do mobility needs Tenure mode choice background risk household mobility

Buying Versus Renting - Determinants of the Net Present Value of Home Ownership for Individual Households Isaac T. Tabner, 2016 The tenure decision upon whether to buy or to rent accommodation has long term consequences for households financial wellbeing that influence macroeconomic development and stability when the cumulative effects of individual decisions are aggregated across populations The author explains how the net present value NPV of ownership versus renting can be used as a framework for informing housing tenure decisions Increases in holding periods inflation and the spread between imputed rent and the opportunity cost of household savings shifts the balance in favour of ownership With plausible assumptions the model demonstrates that households typically need a holding period of between five and ten years to achieve a breakeven NPV The findings support the conjecture that inflation transfers wealth from renters and mortgage providers to owners whereas deflation reverses the flow until rising default levels establish a new equilibrium

Owning Versus Renting Neil H. Buchanan, 2012 This document gathers together 22 essays that were originally published as online commentary by Professor Neil H Buchanan between 2008 and 2012 All but one of the essays first appeared on the Dorf on Law blog In these essays Professor Buchanan discusses the arguments for and against government support of individual home ownership Most of the essays focus on how to move away from the model of individual ownership The latter essays however begin to embrace the possibility that home ownership incentives should be expanded to mitigate the current upside down quality of those subsidies and to preserve middle class professional jobs These essays were also included in the continuing legal education materials for the Teaching Tax session at the 2012 Joint Fall CLE meeting of the ABA Sections of Taxation and RPTA in Boston on September 14 2012
