

QUESTION 10000: Multiple Choice

QUESTION

Which of the following is a characteristic of a primary market for a company's securities? (Select all that apply.)

Options:  The company is not yet established.  The company is not yet profitable.  The company is not yet public.  The company is not yet a corporation.

ANSWER

Correct Answer:  The company is not yet established.  The company is not yet profitable.  The company is not yet public.  The company is not yet a corporation.

Explanation: A primary market is a market where a company's securities are first sold. This is typically done through an initial public offering (IPO) or a private placement. The company is not yet established, not yet profitable, not yet public, and not yet a corporation.

QUESTION

Which of the following is a characteristic of a secondary market for a company's securities? (Select all that apply.)

Options:  The company is not yet established.  The company is not yet profitable.  The company is not yet public.  The company is not yet a corporation.

ANSWER

Correct Answer:  The company is not yet established.  The company is not yet profitable.  The company is not yet public.  The company is not yet a corporation.

Explanation: A secondary market is a market where a company's securities are sold after they have been issued. This is typically done through a public offering or a private placement. The company is not yet established, not yet profitable, not yet public, and not yet a corporation.

QUESTION

Which of the following is a characteristic of a tertiary market for a company's securities? (Select all that apply.)

Options:  The company is not yet established.  The company is not yet profitable.  The company is not yet public.  The company is not yet a corporation.

ANSWER

Correct Answer:  The company is not yet established.  The company is not yet profitable.  The company is not yet public.  The company is not yet a corporation.

Explanation: A tertiary market is a market where a company's securities are sold after they have been issued and then resold. This is typically done through a public offering or a private placement. The company is not yet established, not yet profitable, not yet public, and not yet a corporation.
