- _____ "The Thane of Cawdore will never again betray me. Go announce that he will be executed, and tell Macbeth that Cawdore's titles will be given to him."
- _____ "Is this a dagger I see in front of me, with its handle pointing toward my head? Come, let me hold you."
- _____ "This is a bit of knocking! Come to think of it, if a man were to change all opening the gates of hell to let people in, he would have to turn the key a lot. Knock, knock, knock! What's there, in the devil's name?"
- _____ "So the messenger is short of breath, like a horse tired, as he announces Duncan's entrance into my bedroom, where he will die. Come, you spirits that gather round me tonight, make me feel like a constant and merry drunk, and fill me from head to toe with deadly cruelty! Thicken my blood and clog up my veins so I won't feel remorse, so that no human compassion can stop my evil plan or prevent me from accomplishing it!"
- _____ "Oh, horror, horror, horror! This is beyond words and beyond belief!... Go into the bedrooms and see the yourself. What's in there will make you drop with horror. Don't talk to me about it. Go look and then do the talking yourselves. Wake up, wake up! Bring the alarm bell. Murder and treason! Banquo and Thane's, Malcolm! Wake up! Shake off sleep, which looks like death, and look at death itself!"
- _____ "I'll go to Ireland. We'll both be safer if we go separate ways. Wherever we go, men will realize at an early killing dagger. Our closest relatives are the ones most likely to murder us."
- _____ "How could it be revealed? To leave his wife, his children, his house, and his titles in a place so small that he himself does not like to do so? He lacks the natural instinct to protect his family... His morning away has everything to do with fear and nothing to do with love. And since it's so unreasonable for him to run away, it has nothing to do with wisdom either."
- _____ "Living around the problem and there in the prisoned castle. You'll go in first—a road that set under a cold rock for a month, covering paths from its pores. Double, double, toil and trouble. Fire burn, and cauldron bubble."
