Outlook Alfred Emanuel Smith, Francis Walton, 1890 A Contents-subject Index to General and Periodical Literature Alfred Cotgreave, 1900 The Survey, 1921 Revising Cognitive and Evolutionary Science of Religion Konrad Szocik, Hans Van Eyghen, 2021-01-12 This unique and pioneering book critically appraises current work from both the cognitive science of religion and the evolutionary study of religion It addresses the question Why does the believer possess supernatural or religious beliefs in the combined context of his cognitive biases their adaptive usefulness measured in terms of survival and reproduction and the impact of social learning and cultural traits The authors outlines a pluralistic approach to the study of religion that does not treat religion as an accidental by product but an adaptation selected by natural selection Chapters discuss the role of religious components for the evolution of cooperation and altruism and explore the development of atheism and secular ideas in cognitive and evolutionary terms Topics such as the usefulness of religion the transmission of religious beliefs and a Darwinian approach to religion are among those addressed. Contrary to standard views, religious biases are regarded as shaped by cultural influences and not merely by natural dispositions. This monograph will particularly appeal to researchers who are looking for a scientific explanation of religion and religious beliefs but who do not stop at the level of narrow cognitive and evolutionary accounts. The work will also be of interest to students of philosophy, sociology, religious studies, theology, or anthropology who seek to explain such fascinating, complex, and unequivocal phenomena as religion and religious components.

Jeannette Leonard Gilder, Joseph Benson Gilder, 1890 The Christian Advocate, 1927 Unity, 1888 The Evolution of Religion, Religiosity and Theology Jay R. Feierman, Lluís Oviedo, 2019-09-11. This book takes a multi-dimensional and multi-disciplinary approach to religion, religiosity, and theology from their earliest beginnings to the present day. It uniquely brings together the natural sciences and theology to explore how religious practice emerged and developed through the four sections into which the book is organized: Evolutionary biology, Philosophical linguistics, psychology, and neuroscience. Theology and Anthropology. The volume features an international panel of contributors who develop an innovative picture of religion as a culturally created social institution, religiosity as a more personal and subjective anthropological element of people expressed through religion, and theology as the study of God. To survive in changing times, living systems, a good characterization of religion, religiosity, and theology all must adaptively evolve. This is a vital study of a rapidly burgeoning field. As such, it will be of great interest to scholars in religious studies and theology, as well as in the psychological, sociological, and anthropological study of religion.
