How To Mehi

Carla Stang

How To Mehi:

Mehinaku Thomas Gregor, 2009-02-06 Thomas Gregor sees the Mehinaku Indians of central Brazil as performers of roles engaged in an ongoing improvisational drama of community life The layout of the village and the architecture of the houses make the community a natural theater in the round rendering the villagers actions highly visible and audible Lacking privacy the Mehinaku have become masters of stagecraft and impression management enthusiastically publicizing their good citizenship while ingeniously covering up such embarrassments as extramarital affairs and theft Potato Mustafa Yildiz, 2018-06-06 Potato is the world's fourth food crop after maize wheat and rice and is a staple crop in many diets throughout the world with a high source of proteins carbohydrates minerals and vitamins Biotic and abiotic stress factors give rise to decrease in yield That is why improvement of new cultivars resistant to stress factors by conventional and biotechnological methods is extremely important The most important factor in production increase is the use of healthy seed tubers along with using drought heat and salt tolerant cultivars On the other hand protection and storage of surplus crops which are the most important stage in its marketability are the main problems in potato In this book all these issues are discussed and it is hoped that the book Potato will help growers and researchers in solving problems in potato cultivation

A Walk to the River in Amazonia Carla Stang, 2009-07-01 Our lives are mostly composed of ordinary reality the flow of moment to moment existence and yet it has been largely overlooked as a subject in itself for anthropological study In this work the author achieves an understanding of this part of reality for the Mehinaku Indians an Amazonian people in two stages first by observing various aspects of their experience and second by relating how these different facets come to play in a stream of ordinary consciousness a walk to the river In this way abstract schemata such as cosmology sociality gender and the everyday are understood as they are actually lived This book contributes to the ethnography of the Amazon specifically the Upper Xingu with an approach that crosses disciplinary boundaries between anthropology philosophy and psychology In doing so it attempts to comprehend what Malinowski called the imponderabilia of actual life History of the Diocese of Sault Ste. Marie and Marquette Antoine Ivan Rezek, 1906 Memoirs of the Archaeological Survey of India, 1929
