On the Move Geetha Ganapathy-Doré, Helga Ramsey-Kurz, 2012-12-18 In the postcommunist world of organized mobility commodified hospitality and portable devices the category of people labelled as migrants the displaced and refugees symbolize a different kind of movement Among them the postnational figure of the refugee stands out Fleeing their land alone or in a group on foot or on buses and trains or via makeshift boats and commercial flights dressed in unfamiliar clothes and borrowed identities the refugees travel to dare a future from the taken roads Their journey of escape is fraught with danger and despair their survival complicated by the politics of suspicion and their right to return compromised by the power game between sovereign states Waiting for ever in transit zones or living underground like animals but exploited for their labour the refugees are the untouchables of the 21st century who put to test the universal and moral duty of hospitality When the international legal regime of human and humanitarian rights does not come to their rescue refugee women and children feel twice abandoned This volume of collected essays tries to explore the journey of refugees as represented in New Literatures in English Who are these refugees What circumstances triggered their movement At what point in history Where do they go How do they cope What are their dreams When does the refugees silence break into speech and story How does life assert itself in spite of impending death Could the death of a refugee be as insignificant as her bare life of exile Scholars from Europe Africa India and Sri Lanka give here a comprehensive picture of the refugee movement across the globe since the Second World War The refugee narratives highlight the need to extend the logic of protection from persecution to asylum from economic crisis and ecological imbalance in order to offset the after effects of imperial outreach and industrial expansion With a short story by Chika Unigwe by way of a foreword and contributions from Petra Tournay Theodotou Helga Ramsey Kurz Marta Cariello Stavros Karayanni Jean Marie Soungoua Federico Fabris Evelyne Hanquart Turner Annie Cottier Geetha Ganapathy Dor G Sujatha and V Vinod Kumar

Shakespeare and Contemporary Fiction Barbara L. Estrin, 2012 As the first book to use fiction as theory Shakespeare and Contemporary Fiction reads backward to demonstrate how recent novelists redeploy founding and lyric plots to uncover a Shakespeare who similarly challenges the mythological homogeneity that scripts us

The Holocaust and the Postmodern Robert Eaglestone, 2004-12-09 Robert Eaglestone argues that postmodernism especially understood in the light of the work of Emmanuel Levinas and Jacques Derrida is a response to the Holocaust This way of thinking offers new perspectives on Holocaust testimony literature historiography and post Holocaust philosophy While postmodernism is often derided for being either playful and superficial or obscure and elitist Eaglestone argues and demonstrates its commitment both to the past and to ethics Dealing with Holocaust testimony including the work of Primo Levi and Eli Wiesel with the memoirs of second generation survivors and with recent Holocaust literature including Anne Michael s Fugitive Pieces Jonathan Safran Foer s Everything is Illuminated and the false memoir of Benjamin Wilkomirski The Holocaust and the Postmodern proposes a new way of reading both Holocaust testimony and Holocaust fiction Through an exploration of Holocaust historiography the book offers a new approach to debates over truth and memory Eaglestone argues for the central importance of the Holocaust in understanding the work of Emmanuel Levinas and Jacques Derrida and goes on to explore what the Holocaust means for rationality ethics and for the idea of what it is to be human Weaving together theory and practice testimony literature history philosophy and Holocaust studies this interdisciplinary book is the first to explore in detail the significance of the Holocaust for postmodernism and the significance of postmodernism for understanding the Holocaust The Weight of
