There are more than 350 million professionals on LinkedIn. To stand out, you need to pay great attention to creating a profile. In this section, you'll learn how that's done.

Headline 120 characters

This is the most-important aspect of the profile! Be succinct, creative, and include key terms that make it easy for others to define your industry and your role within.

Name

Include your first, last, and middle name (if applicable). This is not the place for nicknames or humorous references to job titles (such as "sales rockstar" or "developer ninja").

Consider your industry in addition to potential consumers and peers to select the appropriate headshot.

Dos and don'ts of LinkedIn profile photos

Do's

Smile! Don't be too serious. A friendly smile goes a long way. Avoid being too casual or too formal.

Use most of the frame

Your face should be the central focus. Avoid being too close to the camera or too far away.

Choose a familiar picture

Using a picture that you're used to seeing in other places (like your company website or social media) is a good idea.

Don'ts

Be professional

Avoid anything that might be considered unprofessional or inappropriate.

Balance formality

Don't be too formal or too casual. Find a balance that works for you.

Leave fido out

It's a nice touch, but leave your dog out of your profile picture.

Keep the background neutral

Don't let your background distract from your face.

Adding a professional photo of yourself to your LinkedIn profile can result in
