LITTLE RED HEN

Little Red Hen found a grain of wheat. She wondered who would help her plant it. None of her friends would help her plant it. She buried the wheat in the ground. After a few days the wheat was all out. None of her friends would help her cut it. She milled the wheat into flour. She returned with a bag of flour. Little Red Hen would help her bake bread with the flour so she did it herself. When the bread began to smell good, Little Red Hen called her friends and they ate it all by themselves. Every grain of wheat is a hard work to be done, everyone.

... did it herself. She buried ... wondered who ... it herself.
