A Grin Without a Cat: Adversus Iudaeos texts in the literature of medieval Russia (988-1504) Alexander Pereswetoff-Morath, 2002 Vol 1 Adversus Iudaeos Texts in the Literature of Medieval Russia 988 1504 presents a philological study of anti Judaic works known to eastern Slavs in the medieval period Stresses that over 90% of the texts were translations mostly from Greek done by southern Slavic literati Contests the view that the works on world history sermons and disputations reflect actual polemics between Christians and Jews Concludes that since comparisons with other cultures are not yet available some important questions cannot be answered e g what was the attitude of the ordinary eastern Slav toward Jews what was the common image of the Jew among Russian bookmen and what were the mechanisms in Rus culture or theology that perpetuated the transmission of anti Judaic works to such a considerable extent if indeed it was considerable Vol 2 Jews and Christians in Medieval Russia Assessing the Sources concludes that previous generalizations about Jews including those relating to animosity toward them are based on flimsy evidence Notes for example that claims that Jews played an important political role in Rus are preposterous There is no evidence of Jewish practice of usury or of particular Jewish involvement in commerce or the slave trade Also concludes that the pogrom of 1018 did not take place that the pogrom of 1113 was not a pogrom although it might have hurt some Jews among others and that there is no authentic evidence for an expulsion of Jews from Rus by Vladimir Monomachos The scholarly arguments presented here undermine antisemitic interpretations of Jewish economic oppression of Slavs as well as unfounded Jewish claims of Slavic antisemitism
