Who Needs Gay Bars? Greggor Mattson,2023-05-30 Gay bars have been closing by the hundreds The story goes that increasing mainstream acceptance of LGBTQ people plus dating apps like Grindr and Tinder have rendered these spaces obsolete Beyond that rampant gentrification in big cities has pushed gay bars out of the neighborhoods they helped make hip Who Needs Gay Bars considers these narratives accepting that the answer for some might be maybe nobody And yet Jarred by the closing of his favorite local watering hole in Cleveland Ohio Greggor Mattson embarks on a journey across the country to paint a much more complex picture of the cultural significance of these spaces inside big four gay cities but also beyond them No longer the only places for their patrons to socialize openly Mattson finds in them instead a continuously evolving symbol a physical place for feeling and challenging the beating pulse of sexual progress From the historical archives of Seattle s Garden of Allah to the outpost bars in Texas Missouri or Florida that serve as community hubs for queer youth these are places of celebration where the next drag superstar from Alaska or Oklahoma may be discovered They are also fraught grounds for confronting the racial and gender politics within and without the LGBTQ community The question that frames this story is not asking whether these spaces are needed but for whom earnestly exploring the diversity of folks and purposes they serve today Loosely informed by the Damron Guide the so called Green Book of gay travel Mattson logged 10 000 miles on the road to all corners of the United States His destinations are sometimes thriving sometimes struggling but all offering intimate views of the wide range of gay experience in America POC white trans cis past present and future
