Teaching Islamic Studies in the Age of ISIS,

Islamophobia, and the Internet Courtney M. Dorroll,2019-01-24 How can teachers introduce Islam to students when daily media headlines can prejudice students perception of the subject Should Islam be taught differently in secular universities than in colleges with a clear faith based mission What are strategies for discussing Islam and violence without perpetuating stereotypes The contributors of Teaching Islamic Studies in the Age of ISIS Islamophobia and the Internet address these challenges head on and consider approaches to Islamic studies pedagogy Islamophobia and violence and suggestions for how to structure courses These approaches acknowledge the particular challenges faced when teaching a topic that students might initially fear or distrust Speaking from their own experience they include examples of collaborative teaching models reading and media suggestions and ideas for group assignments that encourage deeper engagement and broader thinking The contributors also share personal struggles when confronted with students including Muslim students and parents who suspected the courses might have ulterior motives In an age of stereotypes and misrepresentations of Islam this book offers a range of means by which teachers can encourage students to thoughtfully engage with the topic of Islam

Curriculum Guide for Islamic Studies Talat Sultan,1991,□□□□ □□□□□□ Islamic Studies ,2005 Radicalization in Pakistan Muhammad Shoaib Pervez,2020-11-29 This book offers a critical analysis of radicalization in Pakistan by deconstructing the global and the official state narratives designed to restrain Pakistani radicalization Chapters are centered around three distinct themes educational norms religious practices and geo political aspects of radicalization to examine the prevalent state and global practices which propagate Pakistani radicalization discourse The book argues that there is both a global agenda which presents Pakistan as the epicenter and sponsor of terrorism and a domestic or official agenda that portrays Pakistan as the state which sacrificed and suffered the most in the recent War on Terror which allow the country to gain sympathy as a victim Delineating both conflicting agendas through a critical analysis of global and state practices in order to understand the myths and narratives of radicalization in Pakistan constructed by powerful elites the book enables readers to gain a better understanding of this phenomenon A multidisciplinary critical approach to comprehending radicalization in Pakistan with innovative prescriptions for counter radicalization policy this book will be of interest to researchers working in the fields of International Relations Security Studies Asian Politics as well as Religious Studies and Education in particular in the context of South Asia
