Theories of the family

Functionalism <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Society is a system of interconnected parts- compared to human body .• Body Parts = institutions within society (family, religion etc) maintaining social order.• Everything has a function so that society can work.• Ignore the negative aspects the family can bring such as child abuse, neglect and violence. Murdock <ul style="list-style-type: none">• 4 functions the family must provide:• Sexual – stable sexual relationship for adults.• Reproductive – continuing to create members of society .• Economic – must provide resources for the family .• Educational – teach norms and values of society . Parsons <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Primary socialisation – teaches children the norms and values of society .• Stabilisation – stabilises personalities and emotional relationships. Parents also provide security to help individuals cope in wider society .	Feminism Liberal Feminism- Somerville <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Believe women's oppression is being gradually overcome and we are moving forward- better access job opportunities. Marxist Feminism- Ansley <ul style="list-style-type: none">• The main cause of women's oppression is not men, but capitalism.• Ansley- Wives "takers of shit" absorb anger of frustrated husbands- explains domestic violence for Marxists. Radical Feminism- Greer <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Men are the enemy and the source of women's oppression.• Family and marriage = patriarchy .• Greer – the creation of all female or 'matriocal' households is an alternative. Difference feminism <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Cannot generalise about women's experiences- lesbian & heterosexual, white & black, middle & working class all different.• Not all women live in conventional nuclear families.
Marxism <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Family creates class inequality and capitalism. (Inheritance of property). Zaretsky <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Family and household is like a 'private sphere'.• No land or property belongs to anyone and it's the idea of being trapped in a family.	New Right <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Nuclear family is essential.• Men and women should have conventional roles. Valerie Reikhes <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Does not agree with sex education, emergency pill – encourages sex among teens .• Does not agree with gay couples, single parents• Housewives should not go to work.
Personal Life Perspective- Carol Smart <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Functionalism, Marxists and Feminism suffer 2 weaknesses:<ul style="list-style-type: none">◦ Assume traditional nuclear family dominant family type.◦ They're structural theories- assume families & members passive puppets.• Perspective influenced by interactionism. To understand families, we must look at individuals and the meanings they give their relationships. Bottom up approach (others top down). Look beyond traditional family- e.g. friendships, adopted families (no blood ties)

Benjamin B. Lahey, Alan E. Kazdin, 2013-11-11 The second volume of Advances in Clinical Child Psychology continues the high standards set by the contributing authors of Volume 1. The series has been most fortunate in attracting authors who lead the field of applied child and developmental psychology in theory, research, and practice. Their chapters bring together advances from a wide variety of sub-fields in essays that can legitimately be called major statements. Often these integrative chapters prove to be more than the sum of their parts, not only bringing together information on the most current topics in the field but pointing to new directions as well. Donald Meichenbaum summarized current evidence and theory in his chapter on self-control in children. The cognitive and behavioral and convenient strategies he outlines offer the promise of effective treatment methods, but as he points out, much remains to be learned about these methods. Robert Wahler and his associates outline a new model for the study of generalization of child treatment effects. The model views the family as a system that either supports or inhibits generalization. Suggestions for planning treatments within this framework are provided, as well as an outline for extending this analysis to other levels of systems.
