OCC Chair's Message

2022 has been a successful year for organizational growth and development. We have worked hard to build a strong foundation for the future of the profession and to ensure the professional and public stakeholders to help us achieve our vision. During 2022, the OCC focused on our strategic objectives in a self-directed and self-funded manner. We have also worked on other initiatives and programs available to the profession.

While formulating the 2023 business plan, our quality-focused initiatives going further in the areas of strategic initiatives and investments. We have also worked on our work to improve the quality of our services to our members, including our education programs. We staffed our new year strategy, including with members, education providers, professional bodies, and other stakeholders.

The OCC is now better equipped for facing different kinds of potential challenges of the future and providing better services to our members, patients, and the public and to respond to the needs of patients.

About the OCC

The OCC was founded as a result of The Commission on the Future of Health Care in Ohio. A central objective of the commission was to improve the practice and profession.

The OCC's mission is to improve the quality and standards of the profession and to ensure the professional and public stakeholders to help us achieve our vision. We have worked on other initiatives and programs available to the profession.

- 01 To promote, protect and maintain the safety, health, and mental well-being of the public.
- 02 To improve and ensure public confidence in the profession of health care.
- 03 To monitor and promote professional standards and conduct for the profession.

The OCC has a duty within its jurisdiction to act in the best interests of the profession.

The OCC's Work in 2022

The Council agreed the plan for the OCC in December 2022. These plans have been developed in consultation with the profession and public stakeholders and are being implemented. The Council has also agreed to work on other initiatives and programs available to the profession.

Part of the OCC's work in 2022 has been to improve the quality of our services to our members, patients, and the public. We have worked on other initiatives and programs available to the profession.

Second to our plan, the current business and regulatory environment is gradually changing. The Professional Standards Regulation (PSR) will be implemented in 2023. This is a significant change for the profession and public stakeholders.

And, the government consultation on 'Improving and Modernising Professional Standards Regulation' will be published in the near future. Both represent change for the future and form of professional law and regulation. The OCC will continue to work on other initiatives and programs available to the profession.

The OCC Council remains for the profession, patients, and stakeholders and based on the findings of reports that will be published in the future. We will continue to work on other initiatives and programs available to the profession.
