

Hotel Rwanda (2004) – AP World History Movie Guide

Student Instructions

Hotel Rwanda tells the true story of Paul Rusesabagina, a hotel manager who risked his life to protect over 1,200 refugees during the 1994 Rwandan Genocide. The film offers a harrowing, human-centered account of mass violence, failed international intervention, and the legacy of colonial division.

As you watch, think like a historian. Consider:

- How do the legacies of imperialism and decolonization shape ethnic violence?
- What does the international response—or lack of it—tell us about global priorities in the modern era?
- How can individuals act morally and courageously within systems that fail?

Answer all questions in complete sentences. The final reflection asks you to connect Hotel Rwanda to larger themes in AP World History, including human rights, state-building, and global governance.

Career Construction Theory and Life Writing Hywel Dix,2021-05-13 This volume applies the insight and methods of career construction theory to explore how autobiographical writing is used in different professional careers from fiction and journalism to education and medicine It draws attention to the fact that a career is a particular kind of artefact with distinctive properties and features that can be analysed and compared and puts forward a new theory of the relationship between narrative methodology and the vocation of writing Career construction theory emerged in the late twentieth century when changes to the patterns of our working lives caused large numbers of people to seek new forms of vocational guidance to navigate those changes It employs a narrative paradigm in which periods of uncertainty are treated as experiences akin to writer s block experiences which can be overcome first by imagining new character arcs then by narrating them and finally by performing them By encouraging clients to see their careers as stories of which they are both the metaphorical authors and the main protagonists career construction counsellors enable them to envisage the next chapter in those stories But despite the authorial metaphor career construction theory has not been widely applied to analysis of professional careers in writing The chapters in this volume remedy that gap and in various ways apply the insights of career construction theory to analyse the relationship between writing and professional life in diverse careers where writing is used The chapters in this book were originally published in the journal Life Writing TV Guide ,2006 Black Newspapers Index ,2006 What Works in Teaching and Learning ,2007 Film Review ,2005 British Humanities Index ,2005 Sound & Vision ,2004 The Catholic Periodical and Literature Index ,2005 The New York Times Index ,2006 Cosmopolitan
