House Keys Not Handcuffs:

House Keys Not Handcuffs Paul Boden,2015 House Keys Not Handcuffs is a reflection on over 30 years of homeless organizing in San Francisco It is an attempt to sort out what went well and what did not as a community begins to organize in order to hold public and private institutions accountable Its purpose is not only to distill the lessons we have learned but to encourage others to document and reflect on their own experiences in the hope that we can collectively contribute to a stronger more broadly based movement The book draws from the insights of Paul Boden whose own experiences on the street as an activist and as a co founder of the Coalition on Homelessness and later the Western Regional Advocacy Project WRAP give him a unique and wide perspective It is a voice for people who have no power or privilege except for their capacity to organize and demand social justice Additional essays by friends and longtime allies Art Hazelwood and Bob Prentice round out the book It also includes 67 images created by printmakers painters muralists cartoonists and photographers giving a history of the art made in the struggle Homelessness is a visible manifestation of a society that is lacking in justice We offer House Keys Not Handcuffs in the hope that it will help re invigorate a social justice movement in this country that respects all of us as human beings and ensures that all people have a right to exist and a place to live as basic human rights

Experiencing Cities Mark Hutter,2015-12-22 This extraordinary text for undergraduate urban students is a reflection of Mark Hutter s academic interests in urban sociology and his life long passion for experiencing city life His deep academic roots in the Chicago School of Sociology help inform and appreciate the variety of urban structures and processes and their effect on the everyday lives of people living in cities This text however extends the Chicago School perspective by combining its traditions with a social psychological perspective derived from symbolic interaction and also with a macro level examination of social organization social change stratification and power in the urban context informed by political economy This entirely new 3rd Edition has a global outlook on city life and a visual presentation unmatched among books in this genre

Praying with Our Feet Lindsey Krinks,2021-02-02 Readers looking for ways to get involved in their communities will find plenty to motivate them in Krinks s personal testament Publishers Weekly At age twenty Lindsey Krinks thought she had her life figured out But a devastating injury and an unexpected encounter with a homeless organizing group disrupted her plans and opened her eyes to the immense suffering and injustice around her Awakened to a fierce pursuit of justice and a faith that called her to pray with her feet

Krinks plunged into the underside of American society where she found both staggering loss and astounding love As a street chaplain activist and cofounder of Open Table Nashville Krinks takes us on an unforgettable spiritual journey to tent cities alleys slums and the front lines of movements for justice Praying with Our Feet challenges preconceptions about people who live on the streets calling us to move from charity to justice and to get our hands dirty in the struggle for a better world Readers who are dismayed by the world s suffering but don t know where to start will find much inspiration in this intimate and moving book Includes end of book discussion questions for each chapter Green City Rising Erin Goodling,2024-05-15 Green City Rising is an ethnographic account of collective organizing for environmental justice in an era of growing concern about environmental and climate challenges The conventional sustainability paradigm promises improved environmental conditions for all such as fresh air and clean water walkable and bikeable neighborhoods green space access and protection from climate crises Yet without particular interventions the pursuit of such environmental amenities often contributes to displacement and further harm for communities that have historically borne the brunt of land theft racial capitalism and toxic industries Drawing on the work of an alliance of grassroots organizations called the Portland Harbor Community Coalition PHCC Erin Goodling shows how communities have come together across lines of race and class to work for a more just green future in Portland Oregon Green City Rising reveals that the violence of settler colonialism and white supremacy are far from endpoints a collective vision for a better future is emerging and ordinary people are building the understanding skills and relationships necessary to usher it in Oregon Historical Quarterly Oregon Historical Society,2016 United States of America V.
