Canadian Labour Law Reporter ,2009 Activities Report of the Quartermaster Food and Container Institute for the Armed Forces Quartermaster Food and Container Institute for the Armed Forces (U.S.),1955 Publishers' Circular and General Record of British and Foreign Literature, and Booksellers' Record ,1872 The Technologist ,1870 St. Martin's-le-grand ,1903 Signal ,1984 Domination Law Reports ,1996 University of British Columbia Law Review University of British Columbia,2008 Campus Confidential Ken S. Coates,Bill Morrison,2013-03-11 In 2011 the first edition of Campus Confidential sparked a lively debate about what is really going on inside our colleges and universities The media and readers alike welcomed this readable honest book University authorities didn't They took the authors to task for spilling the beans In this second edition Ken S Coates and Bill Morrison pick up where they left off adding new and up to date information for students and their parents to consider Among the questions they address Why more students should consider the skilled trades Whether a BA is ever worth the paper it's printed on How roving administrators are undermining universities Why we over produce graduate students What's right and wrong with what's happening on campuses in Quebec Now that nearly everyone goes to college or university but only a small percentage of graduates actually find employment in their chosen field understanding what's really going on in Canadian postsecondary institutions is more important than ever Readers can count on Ken S Coates and Bill Morrison for unexpected insights and lots of fresh new ideas and information

Attribution in International Investment Law Csaba Kovács,2018-08-20 The term attribution refers to the means by which it is ascertained whether the State is involved in a dispute governed by international law The notion of attribution is primarily used to determine if the State is responsible for the wrongful conduct of persons or entities with links to the State In the context of international investment law the exponentially growing arbitration jurisprudence arising from international investment agreements IIAs especially bilateral investment treaties BITs reflects the extent and risk of attribution determined in investment relationships that often involve State enterprises This book the first in depth study of the uses of attribution in international investment law provides a deeply informed analysis of the treatment of attribution in applicable legal instruments and investment arbitration jurisprudence worldwide The analysis responds to such questions as the following When is a conduct attributable to the State for the purposes of its responsibility under international investment law What legal instruments govern the question of attribution under international investment law In what circumstances is the State the proper party to a contract entered into by a State owned enterprise with an investor protected by an investment treaty How can State policymakers minimise their international law responsibility within the existing framework of attribution in international investment law How can investors maximise their protection within the existing framework of attribution in international investment law Also covered are the procedural treatment of attribution by investment tribunals explication of such broad brush wordings as elements of governmental authority and under the direction or control and the impact of the rise of State owned enterprises as investors Ongoing and future trends in the jurisprudence are also taken into account A one stop reference on the question of attribution in international investment law the analysis extracts identifiable commonalities among instruments and rulings turning them into useful practice tools This book will prove invaluable for practitioners advising States or investors in investment disputes More generally this book will be welcomed by arbitrators in house counsel for companies doing transnational business and international arbitration centres as well as by academics in international arbitration
