

Graduation Welcome Speech – June 2010

It is my pleasure to welcome families, friends, teachers, and our younger students to graduation day at Wilmington Montessori School.

Earlier this morning, I spoke to you and your families at breakfast. Now, I speak to you as the graduates. I don't know if you all have noticed, but there has been an air of excitement in the halls of Wilmington Montessori for the past week – an excitement that began to peak yesterday when your posters went up in the lobby, graduation practice began, we had our last all school assembly and we all began to listen to Kelly practicing the music for today in the gym. There is excitement in the air and it is all about each of you. This entire school community – your teachers, your parents, grandparents, Aunts and Uncles, and brothers and sisters are so very proud of you today.

I would like to thank each of you for all you have brought to WMS during your time here, many of you since you were only a

Graduation Opening Welcome:

Enjoying the Beat of Term: An Mental Symphony within Graduation Opening Welcome

In some sort of eaten by screens and the ceaseless chatter of instant connection, the melodic splendor and emotional symphony produced by the published word frequently disappear in to the back ground, eclipsed by the relentless noise and disruptions that permeate our lives. Nevertheless, situated within the pages of Graduation Opening Welcome a marvelous literary prize overflowing with organic feelings, lies an immersive symphony waiting to be embraced. Crafted by a masterful composer of language, this fascinating masterpiece conducts visitors on an emotional trip, skillfully unraveling the hidden songs and profound affect resonating within each carefully constructed phrase. Within the depths of this poignant examination, we will explore the book is key harmonies, analyze its enthralling publishing model, and surrender ourselves to the profound resonance that echoes in the depths of readers souls.
