CHAPTER 5 COMMUNICATION IN INTIMATE RELATIONSHIPS

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

After study of this chapter, the student should be able to:

1. Define the term communication and explain why communication is so important in intimate relationships.
2. Describe the relationship between communication skills and changing gender roles.
3. Explain why conflict management is essential in all intimate relationships.
4. Explain how the general society shapes intimate communication.
5. Understand what makes up "good communication" even when expressing dissatisfaction. Describe communication that is characterized by "richness."
6. Identify the factors that are related to communication skills.
7. Identify the symptoms of poor communication and causes of communication failure.
8. Define aversion communication.
9. Differentiate between the content and the relational dimensions of communication and expressive versus instrumental communication.
10. Explain how communication can be used for "bad" purposes.
11. Understand different concepts in communication: three foundation blocks of successful communication; the communication flow; the important components of communication skills.
