Borgerding,2018-06-21 This edited book provides a global view on evolution education It describes the state of evolution education in different countries that are representative of geographical regions around the globe such as Eastern Europe Western Europe North Africa South Africa North America South America Middle East Far East South East Asia Australia and New Zealand Studies in evolution education literature can be divided into three main categories a understanding the interrelationships among cognitive affective epistemological and religious factors that are related to peoples views about evolution b designing implementing evaluating evolution education curriculum that reflects contemporary evolution understanding and c reducing antievolutionary attitudes This volume systematically summarizes the evolution education literature across these three categories for each country or geographical region The individual chapters thus include common elements that facilitate a cross cultural meta analysis Written for a primarily academic audience this book provides a much needed common background for future evolution education research across the globe Self-Directed Learning for the 21st Century: Implications for Higher Education Elsa Mentz,Josef de Beer,Roxanne Bailey,Per B. Bergamin,Chantelle Bosch,Adri du Toit,Roelien Goede,Aubrey Golightly,David W. Johnson,Roger T. Johnson,Corné Kruger,Dorothy Laubscher,Anitia Lubbe,Jako Olivier,Christo van der Westhuizen,Sukie van Zyl,2019-12-12 This book is devoted to scholarship in the field of self directed learning in the 21st century with specific reference to higher education The target audience of the book includes scholars in the field of self directed learning and higher education The book contributes to the discourse on the quality of education in the 21st century and adds to the body of scholarship in terms of self directed learning and specifically its role in higher education Although all the chapters in the book directly address self directed learning the different foci and viewpoints raised make the book a rich knowledge bank of work on self directed learning Schooling for Sustainable Development in Africa Heila Lotz-Sisitka,Overson Shumba,Justin Lupele,Di Wilmot,2016-11-11 This book considers the scope and dynamics of Education for Sustainable Development ESD and learning in schools in Africa It explores the conditions and processes that support such learning and examines how ESD in schooling can improve the quality and relevance of education The quality of education has been defined internationally as a key concern for educational institutions around the world including schools in Africa The models of quality are often limited to performance based approaches and or inclusive approaches The contributions in this book show that there is more to a discussion on educational quality in Africa than performance success and or inclusion The chapters explain how ESD brings a new relevance to education in Africa and at the same time sounds the beginning of a new concept of quality education The volume presents a collection of experiences in creating and supporting quality learning processes through a variety of ESD practices Focus Life Sciences Grade 11 Teacher's Guide ePDF , This note is part of Quality testing Focus Life Sciences Grade 11 Teacher's Guide ePDF , This note is part of Quality testing Scaling up SDGs Implementation Godwell Nhamo,Gbadebo O. A. Odularu,Vuyo Mjimba,2020-01-14 This volume challenges global leaders and citizenry to do more in order to resource the implementation of the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development AfSD and its 17 interwoven Sustainable Development Goals SDGs Starting from the concept we cannot manage what we cannot measure the book presents some cases showing how to draw national level baselines for the domestication and localisation of the SDGs seeking to provide a clear roadmap towards achieving the 2030 AfSD Scaling up SDGs Implementation is targeted at the United Nations national and state governments sub national governments the corporate sector and civil society including higher education institutes labour groups non governmental organisations and youth movements The book is cognizant of these institutions common but differentiated responsibilities and capabilities within their socio political environmental and economic conditions The book presents case studies of how the corporate sector has been scaling up SDGs implementation from the tourism sector insurance to the aviation and agricultural sectors To make sure that no one is left behind the volume includes cases on solutions for pressing environmental and socio economic problems ranging from cooperatives in Brazil to the conservation of springs in Zimbabwe The matter of finding synergies between the climate SDG and the Paris Agreement s Nationally Determined Contributions NDCs is elaborated at length Lastly the book discusses how institutions of higher education remain critical pillars in SDGs scaling up with cases of curriculum re orientation in South Africa to the rolling out of the Women s University in Africa In this context this volume challenges every global citizen and organization to invest every effort into making the implementation of the SDGs a success as we welcome the second four to five year segment down the road to the year 2030
