

THE CAMP

Business Plan

The Camp at Kalu Yala was founded in the fall of 2014 and aims to be the premier camping option for all travelers visiting Panama by using Kalu Yala's highland river valley to offer a unique opportunity to explore the country's natural beauty while experiencing alternative living in its simplest form. Our campsite is located in the Tres Brazos region of San Martín, Panama.

The Camp provides a one-of-a-kind camping experience that offers travelers the opportunity to experience the Panamanian rain forests in a camp setting with a hostel-like atmosphere. Travelers are able to immerse themselves in an off-the-grid lifestyle where they can test their limits by participating in both group and independent experiential outdoor activities and sustainable practices in an authentic setting.

Presently, our camp site is in the introductory stage. Future plans include creating working relationships with other companies and furthering our knowledge of the surrounding hiking corridors that can facilitate the continued travel of our guests, such as trips to San Blas. Furthermore, we hope to establish a full experience with shuttle services to the airport, Panama City, San Blas, and other surrounding areas. These expansions can hopefully be established by the end of 2018.

The backpacker community is the company's primary target market; being based only 1 hour outside of Panama City allows us to capture those travelers both at the beginning and ends of their time in Panama who are spending a few days in the city before moving on. We have no direct competition due to the fact that no other lodging option caters to tent and hammock camping. Alternatives to our product include hostels or providing personal camping gear to camp in the Chagres National Park or at a limited selection of beach hostels that allow camping on their grounds. Our product is unique because our budget-friendly nightly cost includes camping gear and meal 3 meals. We have a competitive advantage because of our association with the Kalu Yala name, our close proximity to Panama City, and our ability to offer Panamanian rain forest exploration.

The greatest risks associated with our business today are transportation to and from the Kalu Yala valley, rainy weather conditions during a large portion of the year, and being off a main travel corridor. We feel we can overcome these risks because of travelers' desire to learn more about Kalu Yala and our partnership with Tropical Treetops.

The management team is led by Chief Executive Officer Jimmy Sisco who initially developed the idea early in 2014 after Kalu Yala's successful TEDx Adventure event at the end of 2013 during which we hosted 120 people on our site for the first time ever. The Interim Accountant is Megan Palthem, who is also currently Kalu Yala Internship's CFO and Business Program Director. The Interim Camp Manager is Jackson Fox, who is also Kalu Yala Internship's Outdoor Recreation Director.

We are seeking $500,000 which will enable us to formalize the camping areas and operations by building infrastructure such as a check-in/storage desk, hammock house, and kitchen, purchasing camping gear, establishing a large marketing campaign, and hiring 3 full-time staff members.

Relationship Marketing in Sports Andre Buhler, Gerd Nufer, 2012-07-26 Relationship marketing is an important issue in every business. Knowing the customers and establishing, maintaining, and enhancing long-term customer relationships is a key component of long-term business success. Considering that sport is such a big business today, it is surprising that this crucial approach to marketing has yet to be fully recognized either in literature or in the sports business itself. Relationship Marketing in Sports aims to fill this void by discussing and reformulating the principles of relationship marketing and by demonstrating how relationship marketing can be successfully applied in practice within a sports context. Written by a unique author team of academic and practitioner experience, the book provides the reader with the first book to apply the principles of relationship marketing specifically to a sports context. Case studies from around the world provide a uniquely global approach applicable worldwide. Strong pedagogical features include learning outcomes, overviews, discussion questions, glossary, guided reading, and web links. Practical advice for professional, semi-professional, and non-professional sporting organizations is provided. A companion website provides web links, case studies, and PowerPoint slides for lecturers. Relationship Marketing in Sports is crucial reading for both students and professionals alike and marks a turning point in the marketing of sports.

Reading Football Michael Oriard, 2000-11-09 Is football an athletic contest or a social event? Is it a game of skill, a test of manhood, or merely an organized brawl? Michael Oriard, a former professional player, asks these and other intriguing questions in Reading Football, the first contemporary book about football's formative years. American football began in the 1870s as a game to be played, not watched. Within a brief ten years, it had become a great public spectacle with an immense following, a phenomenon caused primarily by the voluminous commentary about the game conducted in popular newspapers and magazines. Oriard shows how this constant narrative in football's early years developed many different stories about what the game meant: football as pastime, as the sport of gentlemen, as a science, as a game of rules and their infringements. He shows how football became a series of cultural stories about power, luck, strategy, and deception. These different interpretations have been magnified by football's current omnipresence on television. According to Oriard, televised football now plays a cultural role of enormous importance for men, yet within the field of cultural studies, the influence of football has been ignored until now. From the book: A receiver sprints down the sideline fast and graceful, then breaks toward the middle of the field where a safety waits for him. From forty yards upfield, the quarterback releases the ball; it spirals in an elegant arc toward the goalposts as the receiver, now for the first time, looks back to pick up its flight. The pass is a little high; the receiver leaps, stretches, grasps the ball, barely fingers clutching at the very moment that the safety drives a helmet into his unprotected ribs. The force of the collision flings the receiver backward, slamming him to the turf. This familiar tableau, this exemplary moment in a football game, epitomizes the appeal of the sport: the dramatic confrontation of artistry with violence, both equally necessary. Popular Science Monthly and World's Advance, 1922 The Magazine of Business Arch
