

Graduation Welcome Speech – June 2010

It is my pleasure to welcome families, friends, teachers, and our younger students to graduation day at Wilmington Montessori School.

Earlier this morning, I spoke to you and your families at breakfast. Now, I speak to you as the graduates. I don't know if you all have noticed, but there has been an air of excitement in the halls of Wilmington Montessori for the past week – an excitement that began to peak yesterday when your posters went up in the lobby, graduation practice began, we had our last all school assembly and we all began to listen to Kelly practicing the music for today in the gym. There is excitement in the air and it is all about each of you. This entire school community – your teachers, your parents, grandparents, Aunts and Uncles, and brothers and sisters are so very proud of you today.

I would like to thank each of you for all you have brought to WMS during your time here, many of you since you were only a

Graduation Opening Welcome:

The Commencement Annual University of Michigan, 1891 Invisible Helix Keigo Higashino, 2024-12-17 Detective Galileo Keigo Higashino's best loved character from The Devotion of Suspect X returns in a case where hidden history and an impossible crime are linked by nearly invisible threads in surprising ways The body of a young man is found floating in Tokyo Bay But his death was no accident Ryota Uetsuji was shot He'd been reported missing the week before by his live in girlfriend Sonoka Shimauchi but when detectives from the Homicide Squad go to interview her she is nowhere to be found She's taken time off from work clothes and effects are missing from the apartment she shared And when the detectives learn that she was the victim of domestic abuse they presume that she was the killer But her alibi is airtight she was hours away in Kyoto when Ryota disappeared forcing Detectives Kusanagi and Utsumi to restart their investigation But if Sonoko didn't kill her abusive lover then who did A thin thread of association leads them to their old consultant brilliant physicist Manabu Yukawa known in the department as Detective Galileo With Sonoko still missing the detectives investigate other threads of association an eccentric artist who was Sonoko's mother figure after her own single mother passed and an older woman who is the owner of a hostess club And how is Sonoko continuing to stay one step ahead of the police searching for her It's up to Galileo to find the nearly hidden threads of history and coincidence that connect the people around the bloody murder which surprisingly connect to his own traumatic past to unravel not merely the facts of the crime but the helix that ties them all together

The Rushford Centennial, August 16-21, 1908, 1908 Rhetorics for Community Action Phyllis Mentzell Ryder, 2012-07-10 Rhetorics for Community Action Public Writing and Writing Publics by Phyllis Mentzell Ryder offers theory and pedagogy to introduce public writing as a complex political and creative action To write public texts we have to invent the public we wish to address Such invention is a complex task with many components to consider exigency that brings people together a sense of agency and capacity a sense of how the world is and what it can become All these components constantly compete against texts that put forward other public ideals opposing ideas about who really has power and who really can create change Teachers of public writing must adopt a generous response to those who venture into this arena Some scholars believe that to prepare students for public life university classes should partner with grassroots community organizations rather than nonprofits that serve food or tutor students They worry that a service related focus will create more passive citizens who do not rally and resist or grab the attention of government leaders or corporations With carefully contextualized study of an after school arts program an area soup kitchen and parks organizations among others Ryder shows that many so called service organizations are not passive places at all and she argues that the main challenge of public work is precisely that it has to take place among all of these compelling definitions of democracy Ryder proposes teaching public writing by partnering with multiple community nonprofits She develops a framework to help students analyze how their community partners inspire people to action and offers a course design that support them as they convey those public ideals in community texts But composing public texts is only part of the challenge Traditional newspapers and magazines through their business models and writing styles reinforce a dominant role for citizens as thinking and reading but not necessarily acting This civic role is also professed
