

Question 1

A. Imagine the white car in the left lane is moving more slowly than the surrounding traffic. How is this a violation of state uniform traffic law? It is a violation of state uniform traffic law because

A person is slowing down, causing traffic, and could cause a collision in front of them

B. If a driver is driving more slowly than the surrounding traffic, how does that impact the behavior of the other drivers on the roadway?

Drivers would expect the other driver to travel at a certain speed

And if they stop and drive slowly it could cause the others to get in a crash all because of the white car
