Falling Angels Barbara Gowdy:

Falling Angels Barbara Gowdy, 1991 This is Our Writing T. F. Rigelhof, 2000 Punctuate his title as you like but T F Rigelhof considers This is Our Writing a declaration an enquiry and an exclamation As a writer of half a dozen a reviewer of dozens upon dozens and as a reader of a multitude more books Terry Rigelhof knows much about writing in Canada In these eleven essays he asks what is best in what has been written by Canadians in the twentieth century He examines selected works of some writers whose accomplishments need serious reevaluation What are the real achievements of Robertson Davies Carole Corbeil Mavis Gallant Mordecai Richler Hugh Hood Leonard Cohen and George Grant Rigelhof comes up with a list that will surprise some and dismay others This is a book for readers who have always known in their heart of hearts that Robertson Davies was an egregious windbag and that underneath the inspired silliness of their carefully contrived and managed public images Mordecai Richler and Leonard Cohen have produced three of the most intelligent novels we have In a sequence of interlocking personal essays Rigelhof explores living a writerly life in Canada at the end of the twentieth century The text is fortified by a dozen photographs all but one previously unpublished by Gabor Szilasi one of Canada's greatest active documentary photographers Ripostes Philip Marchand, 1998 Ripostes is a collection of essays on some salient features of the Canadian literary landscape a number of which were first published in the Toronto Star many of which appear in these pages for the first time Included are essays on Atwood Findley Ondaatje and Margaret Laurence as well as thematic explorations of Canadian literature such as an account of the demise of the Survival school of Canadian writing a look at the recent history of the Writers Union of Canada an examination of the role of fathers in Canadian fiction a study of the strange attraction of many of our writers to the occult and so on The tone is considered and critical rather than celebratory although the essays are respectful of the genuine achievements of Canadian literature in the past few decades They try to clear the air as it were of boosterism political correctness and other attitudes which hinder the appreciation and reception of good writing This is an honest re appraisal of Canadian literature undertaken at a time when we need no longer be overcome with relief and euphoria over the fact that some of our authors are now world famous or at least world famous in Hoboken New Jersey

When Words Deny the World Stephen Henighan, 2002 It's the liveliest most cogently argued most provocative and most infuriatingly self satisfied work of literary criticism to be published in this country in at least the last decade Suburbia Reconsidered, Volume 1 Pavlína Flajšarová, Jiří Flajšar, Florian Freitag, Becky Nicolaides, Andrew Wiese, 2025-11-20 This 3 volume set examines how suburban spaces shape and reflect human experiences in North America Europe and Asia bringing together works by an international group of scholars who explore suburbia through critical analyses of literature culture sociology history politics and urban planning The multidisciplinary and international scope of each volume offers readers a wide breadth of perspectives Suburbia Reconsidered thus contributes significantly to the expanding field of suburban studies by offering novel insights into the representation of suburbs in literature the cultural significance of suburban environments and the socio economic challenges confronting suburban communities across the globe Volume 1 of this 3 volume set examines the depiction of suburban spaces in 20th and 21st century British American Canadian and French literature The contributors present original perspectives on how suburban environments influence human experiences and identities as reflected in literature Chapters in this section also probe the intersections of gender race and ethnicity within suburban fiction and traverse popular genres from detective novels to memoirs By integrating insights from literature cultural studies sociology history and urban planning Suburbia Reconsidered enhances our understanding of suburban spaces and their potential for positive transformation and encourages scholars to explore new methodologies and perspectives Canadian Suburban Cheryl Cowdy,2022-04-15 Though a large proportion of Canadians live in suburban communities the Canadian cultural imaginary is filled with other landscapes The wilderness the prairie cityscapes and small towns are the settings by which we define our nation rather than the strip mall the single family home and the developing subdivision which for many are ubiquitous features of everyday life Canadian Suburban considers the cultures of suburbia as they are articulated in English Canadian fiction published from the 1960s to the present Cheryl Cowdy begins her excursion through novels set between 1945 and 1970 the heyday of modern suburban development with works by canonical authors such as Margaret Laurence Richard B Wright Margaret Atwood and Barbara Gowdy Her investigation then turns to the meaning of the suburbs within fiction set after the 1970s when a more corporate model of suburbanization prevailed and ends with an investigation of how writers from immigrant and racialized communities are radically transforming the suburban imaginary Cowdy argues there is no one authentic suburban imaginary but multiple at times contradictory representations that disrupt prevalent assumptions about suburban homogeneity Canadian Suburban provides a foundation for understanding the literary history of suburbia and a refreshing reassessment of the role of space and place in Canadian culture and identity Presbyterian Crosswalk Barbara Gowdy,2012-12-04 Sometimes Beth floated Two or three feet off the ground and not for very long ten seconds or so Gifted eleven year old Beth believes she can cure her hydrocephalic playmate Helen if they just chant hard enough But are their words enough Hailed as remarkable and uplifting by The Globe and Mail and published to equally glowing acclaim around the world Barbara Gowdy's groundbreaking collection of stories We So Seldom Look on Love pushes past the limits of convention into lives that are fantastic and heartbreakingly real HarperCollins brings great works of literature to life in digital format upholding the highest standards in ebook production and celebrating reading in all its forms Look for more titles in the HarperCollins short stories collection to build your digital library Sisters and Strangers Emma Tennant,1991 Descant ,2006 The Broadview Introduction to Literature: Concise Edition Lisa Chalykoff,Neta Gordon,Paul Lumsden,2014-12-11 Designed for courses taught at the introductory level in Canadian universities and colleges this new anthology provides a rich selection of literary texts In each genre the anthology includes a vibrant mix of classic and contemporary works Each work is accompanied by an author biography and by explanatory notes and each genre is prefaced
