written during a period when Saint Exupéry fled to North America subsequent to the Fall of France during the Second World War witnessed first hand by the author and captured in his memoir Flight to Arras The adult fable according to one review is actually an allegory of Saint Exupéry's own life his search for childhood certainties and interior peace his mysticism his belief in human courage and brotherhood but also an allusion to the tortured nature of their relationship Though ostensibly styled as a children's book The Little Prince makes several observations about life and human nature For example Saint Exupéry tells of a fox meeting the young prince during his travels on Earth The story's essence is contained in the lines uttered by the fox to the little prince On ne voit bien qu'avec le cœur L'essentiel est invisible pour les yeux One sees clearly only with the heart What is essential is invisible to the eyes Other key thematic messages are articulated by the fox such as Tu deviens responsable pour toujours de ce que tu as apprivoisé You become responsible forever for what you have tamed and C'est le temps que tu as perdu pour ta rose qui fait ta rose si importante It is the time you have lost for your rose that makes your rose so important The fox's messages are arguably the book's most famous quotations because they deal with human relationships

The Little Prince Antoine Saint-Exupéry, 2017-08-31 The narrator an airplane pilot crashes in the Sahara desert The crash badly damages his airplane and leaves the narrator with very little food or water As he is worrying over his predicament he is approached by the little prince a very serious little blond boy who asks the narrator to draw him a sheep The narrator obliges and the two become friends The pilot learns that the little prince comes from a small planet that the little prince calls Asteroid 325 but that people on Earth call Asteroid B 612 The little prince took great care of this planet preventing any bad seeds from growing and making sure it was never overrun by baobab trees One day a mysterious rose sprouted on the planet and the little prince fell in love with it But when he caught the rose in a lie one day he decided that he could not trust her anymore He grew lonely and decided to leave Despite a last minute reconciliation with the rose the prince set out to explore other planets and cure his loneliness
