INTRODUCTION

BRIEF BIOGRAPHY OF ANITA DESAI

Desai was born Anita Masoomi, to a German mother and Bengali father. She grew up speaking a mix of German, Hindi, Bengali, Urdu and/or English. She began writing stories at an early age. She studied English Literature at the University of Delhi, and soon after married Anand Desai, a philosopher and software company director, with whom she has four children, including writer Kiran Desai. At that time, Desai was beginning to feel pessimistic about her writing career, as few Indian writers had been published in either India or the US. To her relief after much effort, her novel Cry the Peacock was published in 1982 in the UK. She has since written 17 books or novels, including In Custody, which was adapted for screenplay in 1993, and several short story collections. She has traveled throughout the United States teaching writing workshops at American universities. While many of her works have an Indian context, she also writes narratives which take place in the US and internationally.

RELATED LITERARY WORKS

Two contemporary Indian writers were published before Desai: she has written that she was an avid reader of English writers such as Virginia Woolf and Henry James, as well as her contemporary writer Ruth Prasad. Notable New Indian writers of the 1980s were such as Salman Rushdie, Arundhati Ghosh, Vikram Seth, and Vikram Chandra, and he can be said to belong to the same literary generation as Desai. Readers of Desai often compare her work to that of her daughter, Kiran Desai, as well as the work of contemporary Indian female writers Bharati Mukherjee, Sujata Gupta and Jhumpa Lahiri.

PLOT SUMMARY

In a small town in India in the late 1930s, Uma and her younger sister Anura are growing up in a traditional Indian household. Their parents, called only Mama and Papa, try to control the destinies of their daughters by teaching them domestic, traditionally female skills. Uma takes little interest in marriage or household chores—rather, she loves attending her concert which despite her falling grades.

Mama and Papa (or Manu/Papa, as Uma thinks of them) show little patience for Uma. Papa, a middle government magistrate with a fragile ego, dominates his family life by dictating the family's daily activities and everyone's futures. Finding herself as the wife of an important man, Mama cooperates with Papa on almost every issue.

After Anura is born, Mama and Papa demand that Uma leave school to care for her baby brother. Uma must study in the convent school and frantically begs Mother Agnes to talk Manu/Papa into letting her back into school. Uma has her first sex on the convent floor after Mother Agnes sees that it is powerless to help her.

Uma's beautiful cousin Anandika has the opportunity to go to Oxford University, but her parents (Lily Purity and Babu Uncle) don't allow her to go. Instead, they marry her off to the wealthiest, most educated man they can find. Soon, Uma and her parents hear that Anandika's husband and mother-in-law beat her and treat her like a servant.

As Uma grows up, men show little interest in her, preferring her younger sister. After three failed marriage attempts, including two dowry scams, and one old man who marries Uma and then abandons her, Mama and Papa give up on trying to marry Uma off. Anura, meanwhile, receives many marriage proposals, and the chosen Anand, a wealthy man from Bombay. After her expensive ceremony, Anura leaves for a new life in Bombay and visits only occasionally. When she does visit, she acts superior to her family, especially Uma.

Given great care and attention, Anup studies to the point of exhaustion every night under the supervision of a forceful Papa. Quiet and expressionless, Anup has been angrier and more distressed, to the dismay of his parents, who seek to weak and old-fashioned.

Neglected and confined, Uma tries whenever possible to get away from home. On one occasion, her relative Mr. Ramdas, a
