1980's Changes of Children Providing Testimony - Answer 1. Children allowed to provide uncorroborated testimony in alleged sexual abuse cases - children can testify to an event even if what they say was not supported or confirmed by evidence/authority.

2. States eliminated the competency requirement for child witnesses- all witnesses are to be presumed competent.

Conditions Related to Accurate Testimony - Answer - Children who spontaneously report abuse are generally telling the truth.

- Untainted testimony is believed to be more accurate than after repeated questioning.
- Believed to be more accurate if there is less time delay between the abuse and the reporting.
- Many children don't spontaneously tell others because they are afraid, ashamed, or don't realize it is wrong - necessary to ask questions about what is going on in the child's life.
