

How to Do Word Count in Microsoft Word on Windows

There are three ways to get a word count in a document.

Word Count by Status Bar

1. Begin by opening a document on your Windows PC.
2. If you're working on a document, Word automatically counts the number of words in the document and displays the word count on the status bar. To see the word count, right-click the status bar and click Word Count in the Customize Status Bar menu.
3. If you have opened a document you had worked on earlier, the number of words will show in the status bar. If no word count is visible on the status bar, right-click the status bar and click Word Count in the Customize Status Bar menu.
4. You can also count the number of words in a portion of the text in the document. Select the text and check the status bar—it will display the word count of 25 of 117 words as you can see in the screenshot below.
