

Everyone has a problem about something that needs to be resolved. With close to 40 years of academic experience and coming from a mathematical background the author has not met a single person who can truthfully claim not ever having a problem. Challenges are everywhere! They occur every day. They are faced by everyone. They become so insurmountable that they literally assume problem status. Even if someone helps you solve a problem you cannot depend on that person or others to keep solving your problems. Besides, you would always have a problem to be solved. This self help book addresses the knots and bolts of how to hone problem solving skills in a simple straightforward manner that anyone can understand with minimum effort and expertise. The author uses numerous familiar quotations from the public domain to serve as thought provoking stimuli to drive home the views shared in each section. The shareware graphics punctuate the text and serve to lighten the tone, augment the explanations and bring comic relief. The strategies discussed in the book can help anyone. This is your 'go-to' book when you need help with problem solving. Enjoy!
