

1.0 INTRODUCTION

1.3 BUILDING CONCEPT

A sketch of the building before renovation

The Sultan Abdul Aziz Royal Gallery was also called the 'White House' by the local people (Muthiah, 2012). This was generally due to the exterior colonial white facade of the building which is relatively similar to the White House in United States (Zureuel, 2008). The building was designed by Arthur B. Hubback with the design concept of a hybrid Neo-classical and British Colonial architecture.

The exterior and interior design approach was mostly based on Roman architecture. One of the visible Roman characteristics was the use of columns throughout the building. The windows and doors are the typical British Colonial styles.

ii) Sultan Alauddin's Palace in Banting

Upon further research, it can be seen that Sultan Abdul Aziz's great grandfather, Sultan Alauddin Shah's Palace in Banting had a similar concept resembling the western architectural style (Ismail, 2003). It has the same building elements in terms of the principles of design as well as the characteristics Neo classical architecture has.
