Weaving and Dyeing in Highland Ecuador Ann Pollard Rowe, Laura M. Miller, Lynn A. Meisch, 2009-03-06 Although less well known than its much admired counterparts in Peru and Bolivia highland Ecuadorian weaving is an Andean tradition that has relationships with these more southern areas A world away from the industrialized textile manufacturing of Euro American society these handmade pieces reflect the history and artistry of an ancient culture This comprehensive study edited by Ann Pollard Rowe is unrivaled in its detail and includes not only descriptions of the indigenous weaving and dyeing technology but also an interpretation of its historical significance as well as hundreds of photographs drawings and maps that inform the understanding of the process The principal focus is on backstrap loom weaving a major pre Hispanic technology Ecuadorian backstrap looms which differ in various ways from those found elsewhere in the Andes have previously only been treated in general terms Here the basic operation of this style of loom is covered as are a variety of patterning techniques including warp resist ikat dyeing weaving belts with twill and supplementary and complementary warp patterning Spanish colonial treadle loom weaving is also covered The weaving techniques are explained in detail so the reader can replicate them if desired Textiles have been an important art form among Andean peoples from remote prehistory up to the present A greater understanding of their creation process can yield a more meaningful appreciation of the art itself

Designing on the Loom Mary Kirby, 1955      Hand Weaving Mad Duchemin, 1975      Weaver's Word Finder Harriet D. Tidball, 1953      Memory and Family in Australian Refugee Histories Alexandra Delliios, 2020-06-09 This book revisits Australian histories of refugee arrivals and settlement with a particular focus on family and family life It brings together new empirical research and methodologies in memory and oral history to offer multilayered histories of people seeking refuge in the 20th century Engaging with histories of refugees and family and how these histories intersect with aspects of memory studies including oral history public storytelling family history and museum exhibitions and objects the book moves away from a focus on individual adults and towards multilayered and rich histories of groups with a variety of intersectional affiliations The contributions consider the conflicting layers of meaning built up around racialised and de racialised refugee groups throughout the 20th century and their relationship to structural inequalities their shifting socio economic positions and the changing racial and religious categories of inclusion and exclusion employed by dominant institutions As the contributors to this book suggest family functions as a means to revisit or research histories of mobility and refuge This focus on family illuminates intimate aspects of a history and the emotions it contains and enables complicating the passive victim stereotype often applied to refugees As interest in refugee integration continues to rise as a result of increasingly vociferous identity politics and rising right wing rhetoric this book offers readers new insights into the intersections between family and memory and the potential avenues this might open up for considering refugee studies in a more intimate way This book was originally published as a special issue of Immigrants Minorities Appropriate Technology ,1982 Textile Technology Digest ,1981 □□□□□□□□ ,2003 Complex Weavers Newsletter ,1979 Craft Horizons ,1976 Handwoven ,1982 Carnegie Magazine ,1978 Fur Trade Journal of Canada ,1957 Variety's Complete Home Video Directory ,1988
