Parliament,1909 Report of the Dominion fishery commission on the fisheries of the province of Ontario 1893 issued as an addendum to vol 26 no 7 Of the Nation Born Hameeda Hossain,Amena Mohsin,2016-05-30 The Sexual Violence and Impunity in South Asia research project coordinated by Zubaan and supported by the International Development Research Centre brings together for the first time in the South Asian region a vast body of research on this important and yet silenced

subject Six country volumes one each on Bangladesh Nepal Pakistan Sri Lanka and two on India as well as two standalone volumes comprising over 50 research papers and two book length studies detail the histories of sexual violence and look at the systemic institutional societal individual and community structures that work together to ensure that impunity for perpetrators is more or less inbuilt As many of the authors argue the very nature and conditions of sexual violence in the South Asian region lend themselves to a silencing process or at a minimum a reluctance to address it head on something that may at least partially explain why accountability for sexual violence remains such a distant horizon This volume focuses on Bangladesh a nation born in 1971 in a birth that was as marked by bloodshed as it was by sexual violence The history of widespread sexual violence and incidents of sexual slavery as well as the absence of accountability for the perpetrators is by now well known The essays here address the structural dynamics of impunity at the individual and societal levels looking not only at the conditions that go into its creation but also the elements that fuel it They ask what helps it to become so embedded and point to its human global and national costs Together they explore the ways in which the women s movement and feminist practice have worked to demand accountability and recognition for the victims and survivors of sexual violence challenging the impunities embedded in the patriarchal structures of Bangladeshi society In doing so they bear witness to the continuing efforts of women s groups in Bangladesh to give this crucial issue the attention that it deserves for without that justice for victims and survivors will remain elusive
