Description of the internship

2.1 The organization Faunagua

Faunagua is a non-governmental organization (NGO) founded in 2004. It works on the development and implementation of projects, which contribute to local development, sustainable use and conservation of the aquatic ecosystems and resources in Bolivia. The organization facilitates the collaboration between local communities, investigators, national authorities and private institutions. In its vision the aspect of local people is very important. Therefore, in all projects local people are taken into account. By respecting customs and traditional knowledge and without danger for the environment, Faunagua tries to improve the quality of life of local populations (indigenous communities, rural people and fishermen).

An overview of the projects of Faunagua:

- The development of strategies for sustainable exploitation, management and conservation of hydrobiological resources and fishery;
- Studies on the biology and ecology of fauna (Pteronura brasiliensis, Inia boliviensis)
- Identification of threats for aquatic fauna and fishery
- Development and implementation of management plans for aquatic fauna (Several fish species, Turtles: Podocnemis expansa and P. unifilis; Caiman: Caiman yacare; Giant otter: Pteronura brasiliensis; River dolphin: Inia boliviensis);
- Monitoring: fauna and aquatic habitats
- Establishment and monitoring of alternative production networks of handicrafts of crocodile fish skins
- Development of cartographic information
- Strengthening of responsible tourism
- Studies on the possible impact of hydroelectrical dam constructions

For NGO's the availability of resources is one of the main factors that determines the scope and duration of projects. To be able to carry out projects of several months, but also projects of several years, sufficient external financial support is needed. Each financier has its own criterions for applying projec

Assessment for Experiential Learning Cecilia Ka Yuk Chan,2022-09-29 Chan s book explores the challenges in assessing experiential learning deepens our understanding and inspires readers to think critically about the purpose of assessment in experiential learning Experiential learning has been studied and proven to be effective for student learning particularly for the development of holistic competencies i e 21st century skills soft skills transferable skills considered essential for individuals to succeed in the increasingly global and technology infused 21st century society Universities around the world are now actively organising experiential learning activities or programmes for students to gain enriching and diversified learning experiences however the assessment of these programmes tends to be limited unclear and contested Assessment plays a central role in education policies and students approach to learning But do educators know how to assess less traditional learning such as service learning entrepreneurship cross discipline or cross cultural projects internships and student exchanges While the current assessment landscape is replete with assessments that measure knowledge of core content areas such as mathematics law languages science and social studies there is a lack of assessments and research that focus on holistic competencies How do we assess students ability to think critically problem solve adapt self manage and collaborate Central to the discussion in this book is the reason students are assessed and how they should be assessed to bring out their best learning outcomes Offering a collection of best assessment practice employed by teachers around the world this volume brings together both theoretical and empirical research that underpins assessment and perceptions of different stakeholders understanding of assessment in experiential learning from students teachers and policymakers The idea of assessment literacy also plays an important role in experiential learning for example reflection is often used in assessing students in experiential learning but how reflection literate are educators are they aware of the ethical dilemmas that arise in assessing students These questions are discussed in detail The volume also introduces a quality assurance programme to recognise student development within experiential learning programmes The book will be particularly informative to academic developers teachers students and community partners who struggle with the development and assessment for experiential learning those who plan to apply for funding in experiential learning and policymakers and senior managements seeking evidence and advice on fine tuning curricular assessment designs and quality assurance The Open Access version of this book available at www.taylorfrancis.com has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license
